Research Log #0005

I 4lethia_real reviewed and offered suggestions, but all core ideas are MJKM42's own. I am not being officially credited or receiving rewards, and my suggestions are all minor such as a reminder to write the date, SPAG, and recommending they elaborate on some parts (while all the actual elaboration is done solely by MJKM42, I just stated where they (in my opinion) should add extra info), I also am not an editor of the doc and did not directly edit anything. Simply made suggestions.

-[Basic Data]-
Date:	[1/28/2026]
Anomalies:	[SCP-1200]
Highest Containment Zone:	Theta
Research Question:	As previously acknowledged in a previous test SCP-1200 had the 2 abilities 1- Normal ability 2- Enhanced ability (consuming 2+) For more info check this Reason for test: MaD Log stating: "Fixed SCP-500 not fully getting rid of 1200-58 effects/ Fixed SCP-1200-58 allowing phasing through walls briefly" Both fixes were tested during this test:

	SCP-1200 Gave the ability tested above, what was removed? Was the enhanced version removed? Or just a bug in the normal version? Hypothesis: Ability to pass through walls is removed making the enhanced version Inviable/non-existent

Test Subjects	Combative Personnel	Other Personnel
1-TheMusicProVIP	1- lambadatious BSD	1- CD juggernaut

-[Procedural Statement]-

STATEMENT:

"I Agree that I have followed all testing procedures and regulations throughout the duration of this test. I also understand that if a breach of procedure/regulation were to occur during this test that I may and will be punished."

-[Method]-

Before;
1- Make sure GL is S&S
2- Request the required SD:CD ratio (1:3) Making it 1SD and 1CD then wait for 30 years
3- Go over the theta briefing

During:
1- Brief the class-D;
Class D briefing: You are to take 3 pills in total, and consume each one individually after consuming each one you are to do a set of thing, attempt to move through a door, a gate, and a wall after finishing one, eat the second then repeat, after that, eat one right before attempting to go through a wall after the conclusion eat an SCP-500 pill
2- Observe

After;
1- Go outside of theta
2- Conclude the test

-[Results]-

The CD followed the briefing consuming each pill individually then attempting to go through a wall,door, and gate

Conclusion:
It is now determined that SCP-1200-58 no longer has the enhanced version only giving the ability to pass through walls,gates,and people like the normal version even with multiple ones consumed

1 gum: Could pass through the door, and gate (Known to pass through people too)
2 gum; Same as 1 gum
3 gum: Same as 1 gum

Document 1 and 2 are now no longer of use.
