

Carissa Pinckney

Performance, sound, theatrical artist and educator with a practice focusing on Blackness, intergenerational trauma, family archive and mental health with a technical background in experimental theater, acting, directing and producing.

Education

2023 MFA Performance, School of the Art Institute of Chicago

2012 BFA Theater, Minor in Politics (Middle Eastern Studies), New York University
Study abroad at Tel Aviv University

Residencies

2022 The Melick House, cross the silence artist residency