

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

Walsh School of Foreign Service

Institute for the Study of International Migration

Certificate in Refugees, Migration and Humanitarian Emergencies APPLICATION

First Name:

Last Name:

Net ID:

GU ID (on back of your Go-Card):

Expected Semester and Year of Graduation:

Degree Program:

COMPLETED COURSES

:: AS YOU COMPLETE COURSES, PLEASE UPDATE THIS FORM ::

All students: You need a total of five courses, including Introduction to Humanitarian Crises (ISIM 6698). If the name of the course does not obviously fit in an area, please add a sentence of two explaining how the course relates to refugees, migration or humanitarian crises (for example, if a significant portion of the class dealt with the issue or you wrote a paper or participated in a group project/presentation related to refugees, migration or humanitarian crises.)

Main campus students: If you have questions, contact the Faculty Advisor: Professor Christi Smith: cs2187@georgetown.edu

Law Center students interested in pursuing the Certificate should contact Professor Andrew Schoenholtz. Andrew.Schoenholtz@law.georgetown.edu

Please return this application to isim@georgetown.edu by the end of the semester before you plan to graduate.

Course 1 (Number and Title):

Professor:

Semester/Year:

Please describe which area this course pertains to and why:

Course 2 (Number and Title):

Professor:

Semester/Year:

Please describe which area this course pertains to and why:

Course 3 (Number and Title):

Professor:

Semester/Year:

Please describe which area this course pertains to and why:

Course 4 (Number and Title):

Professor:

Semester/Year:

Please describe which area this course pertains to and why:

Course 5 (Number and Title):

Professor:

Semester/Year:

Please describe which area this course pertains to and why: