

callout for Tumblr user shedinja previous names: Ocelot, Mimi, Larxene, Meiyan, Yang, Juan, Yarne, Selkie, Yoshi, Noire, Marokintana, Morti previous handles: adequately, extinction, khre, traumakawaii, palixo, wycademy, faline (currently in use by a different person), npdvelour, ferett, ssrwatanabe accused of: racefaking, manipulation, poorfaking, general nastiness, extreme lying a lot of the things mentioned in this callout are from the past. however, it is evident that user mimi has not attempted to change whatsoever, not taken responsibility for any of it, and still continues to lie and manipulate people.

when approached about lying mimi simply disassociated from those who knew about his lies (as he has, multiple times) and never took responsibility for them. a lot of sources in this post are old however the stuff behind them are still being lied about by mimi.

Racefaking

mimi has a history of racefacking. the first screenshot is from mimi's old blog, in which he claims he was "colombian/chinese/libyan/german". "libyan" was added during the height of the second libyan civil war. mimi also previously claimed japanese and afro-colombian (sourced), both of which he is not.

about me

- yarne
- bigender (they/she pronouns please)
- bi ace
- 16 (6/26)
- mixed (x)
- fictionkin
- a tiny rat ma colombian/chinese/libyan/german i'm morti and i'm here to make you think about death and get sad and stuff!!!!

i like to hold hands with ginger and rose... sometimes i call them cute.... it's kinda serious....

i'm really into musicals (esp. heathers, american psycho, bat boy, and phantom of the opera.) andrew lloyd webber sucks ass tho. if u hate andrew lloyd webber too we should be friends :3c my favorite bands are the dresden dolls, mother mother, and ludo. i also like bright eyes and the hush sound! i love talking about music with people so talk to me about music.

mimi has claimed to have been chinese since around 2016, however when asked about it simply said “we took a dna test” in 2018. mimi has never actually proved himself taking a dna test. when approached about being chinese mimi claimed to be ‘1/6 chinese’.

💖 MEIYAN / 17 / LATINASIAN 💖 i'm a lesbian + i use any pronouns mostly mestizo and no byf! i'm not a coward chinese

@ mutuals please tag ufos

me / etc

“Are you Asian? no” - taken from mimi’s old blog. this proves there was a point at which mimi started to claim asian culture after 2016.

Mimi has previously also claimed being japanese. no longer claimed.

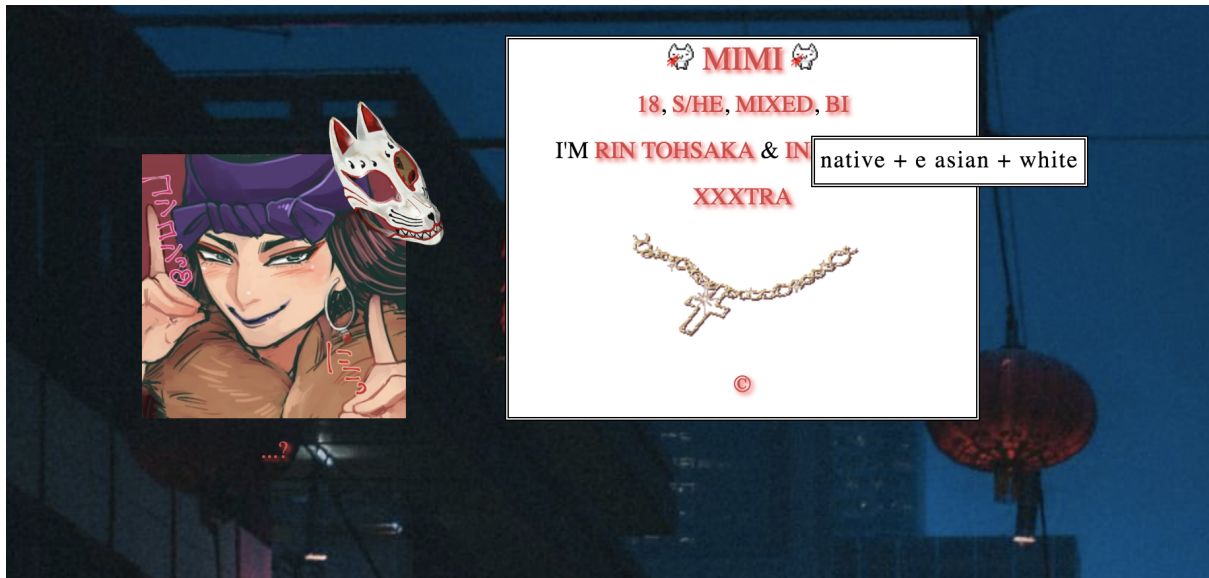

<http://archive.is/nz6mW>

he has also claimed being afrocolombian. no longer claimed, however does claim being "mestizo".

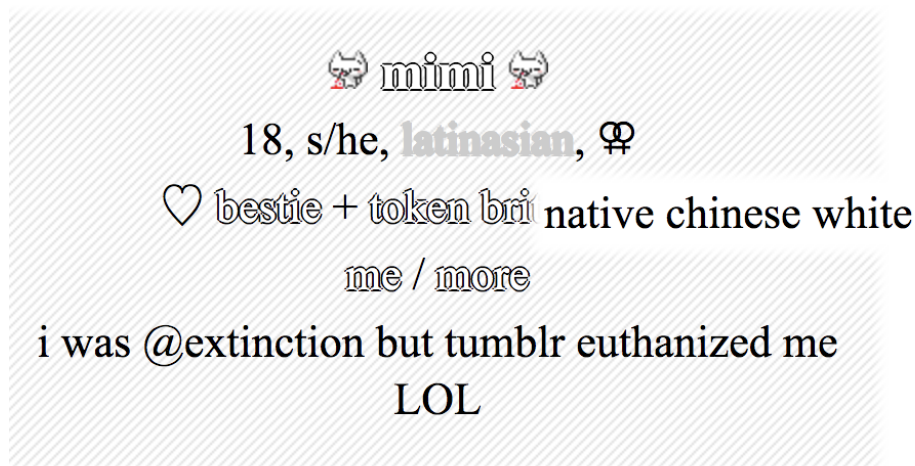

<http://archive.is/7Dr8b>

recently mimi changed his race on tumblr from “mestizo / chinese / white” to “native + e asian + white”. this implies he’s attempting to change his race again. a week later he changed it back to “mestizo”, then changed it back to “native.” mimi’s race seems to change every time he picks up a new kin. when sent an ask about his race he declined talking about it publicly.

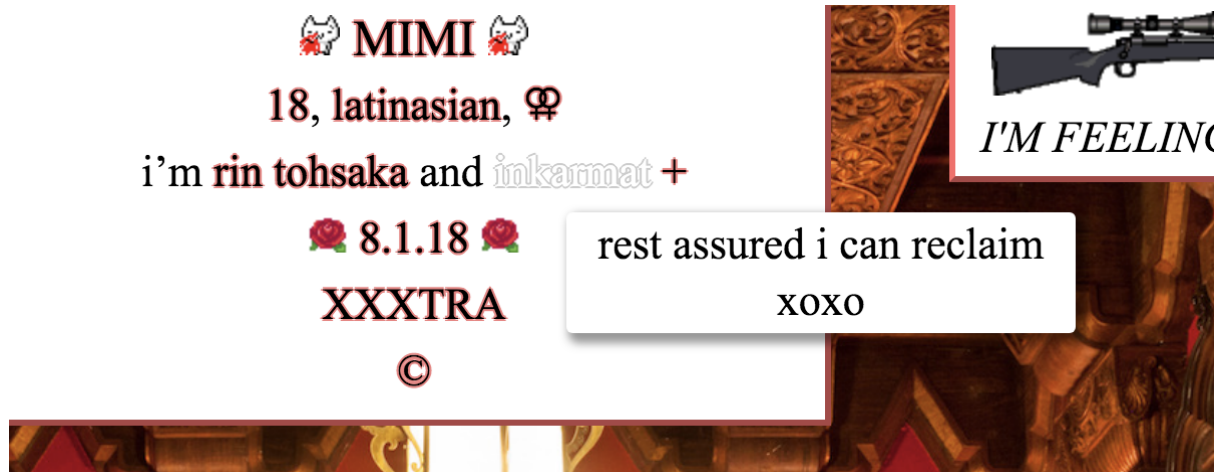

mimi also used to go by the name “meiyan”, which is a chinese name but changed it after being caught out by friends privately, which implies he is aware of what he’s doing. mimi also previously went by “yang”.

after mimi’s previous blog was suspended he has still decided to run with ‘native / chinese / white’.

after changing url to shedinja, he also changed his race to 'native (muisca) / chinese / white'. he has changed his race so many times (and considering his past history with it) it's confusing on what to actually believe. a few months ago his race was changed to "mestizo / indigenous e asian / white" but quickly reverted.

mimi also put this on his about where he claims he can 'reclaim' an Ainu character.

Intersex/mental stuff etc below are posts mimi made a few years ago. these include references to being autistic and intersex. whilst they are 3 years old, he still lies about both.

why do allistic people want me to hate myself so much tho thts the real question :-///// mimi is neither intersex or autistic. (see below)

on June 2nd 2018 mimi (then meiyen) posted to his Facebook about being “an intersex person” however upon asking several reliable sources (family members & close friends) about this they said that he wasn’t along with other things (mainly mental illnesses that he has claimed to have) that turned out to all be lies.

the image source proving that mimi was lying about being intersex and autistic was removed as it was deemed too personal to post (family member), however, we can confirm that mimi is definitely lying about this. mimi also uses the term “special interests” on his blog but is not autistic.

mimi has also posted about how he's critical of callouts, but, weirdly enough, hasn't "grown or recovered" at all himself.

i don't necessarily want to stir the pot on this fine friday night but like... some of you are very into the drama aspect of callouts but have no actual interest or investment in watching people grow or recover and it is honestly very telling...

this obviously isn't about adult freaks like gaud who are like. pedos or cannibal fetishists or whatever freak shit. this is about teenagers who were douches when they were 15 or 16 and none of us have ever forgotten it. i love a good rousing bit of discourse as much as the next loser on this shitty site but did you all like forget about compassion and forgiveness while you were rbing black and white edits of hunter x hunter gifs or what woa this really blood up check out www. yahoo mimi loves to post about how it's weird people racefake on tumblr and all that but does it himself. this "critical of callouts" post was obviously done because he's hiding something.

Peerfaking

mimi posted late last year about “my brother’s christmas list” which featured several expensive items. however, mimi rounded it off with “we can’t even afford groceries half of the time who the fuck does he think he is”.

mimi however recently attended katsucon, anime nyc, and anime boston. why would someone who can't afford groceries prioritize anime conventions, cosplays, and ita bags over groceries? according to his acparadise, he's attended 16 conventions in 4 years. (page last updated 2018, doesn't include the multiple conventions he has attended in 2019)

Wow that was the worst experience I've ever had flying ever :c Under a cut cause annoying story.

Missing my connecting flight because the previous had been delayed but they didn't tell us until we boarded the plane AND THE COMPANY BLAMED ME FOR NOT GETTING THROUGH CUSTOMS QUICKLY ENOUGH.

I'm sorry, but you gave me 20 minute to go through international customs, and it's my fault? I wouldn't mind so much except for the fact that you wouldn't help book me a hotel or motel (Or another flight for that matter). So I ended up booking a flight up to New York and having to rent a car and drive three and a half hours back.

Wow, getting blamed for missing my chance back home really sucked at midnight. So was running so I could make the New York flight. I don't care if your policy states that its 'obvious it was a mistake on my part since I was granted an hour to go through customs' but my flight to get to Fort Lauderdale got there at 9:40 and we didn't get off the plane itself for a while because we COULDN'T. Telling me that my plane began unloading at 9:10 is a real bad thing to do, especially since you had also promised you'd help me get through customs due to having a flight quickly afterwards.

And then said it was against your policy to move me up.

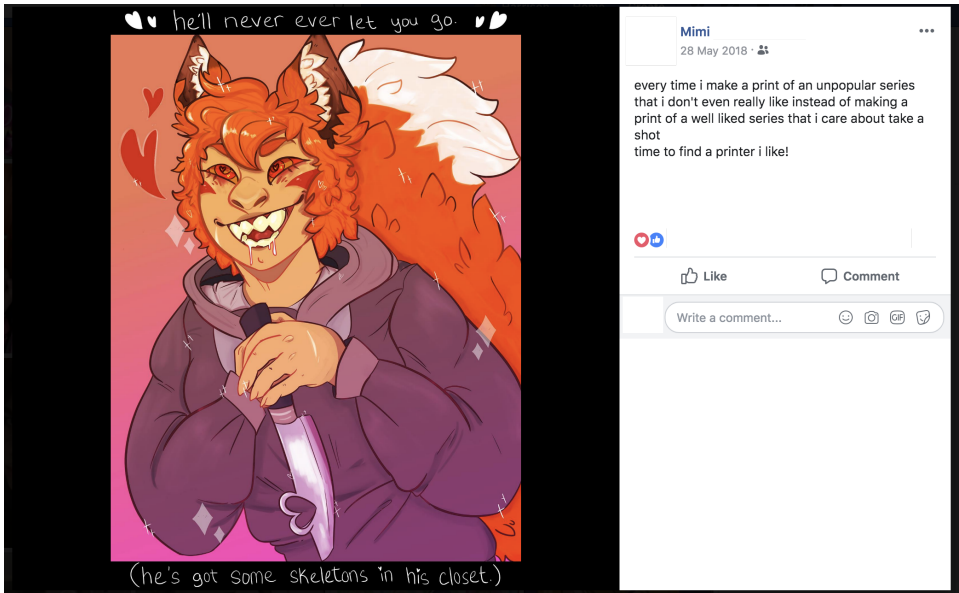

I'm really done with public airlines for now, I should stick to getting lifts from private airlines so I don't have to be humiliated by this again at the help desk with a long line behind me.

Sorry ranting adslfkjasdfkjl.

5 YEARS AGO #personal #rants whilst this is old, who even thinks about getting 'private airlines' if he can't afford groceries?

Boyfriend to Death

this is from mimi’s facebook and the above series is not something any normal decent human being should like let alone feel the want to draw a print for.

the character that is drawn is ren from the game boyfriend to death (btd).

here’s the about and warnings for the game:

About this game

Boyfriend to Death 2: Fresh Blood is a murdersim game created by Gurobob and ElectricPuke. It contains heavy tones of rape, torture, death and other dark and twisted elements. This game is not intended for the faint of heart and is only for players 18 and above due to content and sexual nature.

This game was developed for fetishists by fetishists.

Lying

when mimi was approached with many of these, he claimed he was a “pathological liar” and started to cut off from those who started to know about his lies. he also used other friends who aren’t aware that many of the stuff he says are complete lies to guilt those who ask about them. mimi has never taken responsibility for any of his lies and continues to manipulate his friends into getting them to feel sorry for him about things that have never happened to him. he constantly says he’s ‘changed’ and that he has ‘decided to become a better person’ but again, is still lying about all of the things posted on here.

we were willing to give him a chance before this callout was posted however his track record on manipulation and lying hasn’t changed. he is still racefaking, still poorfaking, still stealing money, still claiming to be things he’s not, and still manipulating friends. he’s been lying about this stuff for years and it’s time he was finally accountable for it instead of just claiming “i’m going to change” and “i’m going to be a better person” and getting away with it by running from the lies he’s told.
