Boone County Illinois Marriages 1838 thru 1860 in marriage entries on microfilm
Groom's Alphabetical Index

Boone County was formed in March 4, 1837 from Winnebago County. Winnebago County was formed Jan. 16, 1836 from Jo Daviess County.

The western one-mile-wide Boone Co. strip of land remained in Winnebago County Illinois control till about 1844.

Some marriages are recorded in Rock & Walworth County Wisconsin, or across county lines in a neighboring church's records.

I found & bought the Boone & Winnebago County Court House microfilmed records in the Illinois State Archives secret security vault, which has a master copy of Illinois Counties microfilmed records.

There are many phonetic spelling errors, as all records have. The county clerk issued licenses before marriage as phonetic spellings he heard. A few marriage entries mention parents' names of consent, etc.

Some may have taken out a license in Boone County, but then married across the county line.

I have added full names, to some abbreviated etc. names, from other records.

Microfilm Copy of marriage entries are at Ida Public Library & Boone County Historical Museum in Belvidere. Digital images are at Familysearch.org online. Other indexes are at ilsos.gov., etc.
