Congratulations to each of you! We can't wait to get started and are looking forward to a fantastic season together.

To those who were not selected this time, thank you for your effort, courage, and commitment throughout the tryout process. We encourage you to keep practicing, continue developing your skills, and come back even stronger. We know many of you have the potential to grow tremendously.

If you are interested in staying involved with the program, we would love to have your help with the scorebook and other team support roles. If you would like to be part of the team in another way, please reach out. We would be happy to talk with you about those opportunities.

We are proud of everyone who tried out, and we appreciate the time, energy, and heart you put into the process. Congratulations again, and let's have a great season!
