

Introductions of My Profile:

With 30 years of experience in national and international sectors across various commodities, I, Neel Kanth Seth, focus on fostering small-scale artisanal enterprises in rural areas. My expertise lies in marketing, sourcing, and merchandise design, garnered from extensive travel worldwide. My goal is to promote Indian handicrafts globally and collaborate with artisan groups to elevate their work.

Vision with Handicrafts Handloom Artisan Trade Sourcing Development Explorations:

After three decades in the Indian handicrafts trade, I aim to combine my skills to promote Made in India globally. I seek roles in communications or field sourcing, leveraging my experience in promoting artisan goods and empowering rural artisans.

Passion in Handicrafts as Social Welfare Support for Micro Small Medium Enterprises:

Driven by a desire to support Indian handicrafts and empower artisans, I aim to contribute to projects that uplift rural communities. With over 30 years of experience in sourcing, product development, and marketing, I am well-equipped to make a meaningful impact.

Goal to Promote Made in Indian Merchandises with Collaborations of Global Handicrafts Artisan Venture:

My goal is to highlight talented Indian artisans globally and bridge cultures through design. I advocate for artisan empowerment and aim to increase Made in India revenue worldwide.

Recognizing the Challenges Faced by Rural Artisans:

Rural artisans face significant challenges, and my research focuses on highlighting their issues and future opportunities. Through my expertise and international exposure, I aim to offer guidance to policymakers and organizations to support rural artisans.

Closing Statement:

With a proven track record in business marketing across 50+ countries and a passion for promoting Made in India, I offer valuable skills and experience to support the company's objectives. I hope you consider my application for a suitable position where I can contribute effectively.

Vision for National & International Artisan Development:

My vision is to partner with NGOs or Free Trade Zones to enhance artisan production on a global scale. Through my expertise in handicrafts and handloom concepts, I aim to bridge design and product development gaps by sourcing skilled artisans from various regions of India. Additionally, I strive to promote sustainability and excellence in sectors like Jute, Silk, Carpet, and Handlooms, fostering employment opportunities and global competitiveness.

To achieve this vision, I focus on:

1. Skill and Capacity Development: Empowering artisans with training and skill enhancement programs.
2. Infrastructure Support: Establishing Common Facility Services, Resource Centers, and Design Banks to facilitate production.
3. Market Linkages: Organizing thematic exhibitions and creating marketing outlets to connect artisans with national and international clients.

With a dedicated team of artisans and designers, including women's groups, I aim to provide comprehensive services for customized design and product development, ensuring a top-notch platform for both national and international clients.

Involvement Focus for Artisan Support:

1. Product Design & Development
2. Design Research & Promotion
3. Image Building & Branding
4. Product Standards & Excellence
5. Exhibition Design & Visual Merchandising
6. Industry Networking & Tie-Ups
7. Vendor Compliance & Package Design
8. Graphic Design & Technology Up gradation
9. Market Trends & Technical Information
10. Design Training & Career Opportunities

Through collaboration with NGOs, government projects, and allied societies, I aim to excel in these areas to support artisan welfare and development projects effectively.

Additional Information:

With extensive experience in handicrafts merchandise worldwide, I have collaborated with underprivileged indigenous artisans in remote areas, tapping into their remarkable talent and expertise. While traveling across African and SAARC nations such as Uganda, Nigeria, Kenya, and Ethiopia, I am passionate about showcasing the skilled artwork of every country on a global platform, highlighting the value of artisans and their working environments.

Entrepreneurial Journey to Social Impact:

With over 30 years of experience in handicrafts and merchandising, I strongly believe in promoting opportunities for both privileged and underprivileged artisans, particularly women, who play a crucial role in societal development. It is time to empower and mobilize women, harnessing their skills and talents to contribute to nation-building. Emancipating women's empowerment is crucial for holistic development, encompassing health, hygiene, economics, education, and more, paving the way for a better society.
