

Hello [REDACTED],

This is [REDACTED] again, As I said I'm interested in a possible collaboration between us. But things do not look like it will work out due to you not answering any of my emails. So it look like developing your business is not a priority for you right now and that's okay if it ever is, Let me know I'm really busy doing other stuff.

So have a nice journey and take care 😊

Best regards,
