Daily Announcements

- Announcements for December 10th, 2024

- DECA Members - Please stop in during Prowl today in Ms. Banach's - we need to confirm District competition information.
- March-Madness Donation Bracket

We're going to have a March-madness style bracket where students donate to the teacher in each round that they want to continue on towards the finals. The teacher with the most donations in their name moves on to the next round.

We would love to have you participate in both donating and in filling out this form to represent your picks from the bracket. The student with the most accurate bracket will win a prize.

Remember that you are making picks based on who you think your classmates will donate to in order to keep them in the running, not necessarily your favorites! (Teachers may also fill out the form for fun, let's see how well we know our students!)

Listen for when you can start donating and we'll announce who moves forward each day!
