Inquiry Process	Quote: "One reason why we fail to turn ideas into action is that we assume that willpower is all we need to change...Research suggests, however, that willpower usually isn't enough. If we really want to turn ideas into actions, we need a structure that will ensure that we do what we know we need to do." (The quote is designed to emphasize that the inquiry process is a structure that can create habits) Connector Activity What is the Inquiry Process?
