They arrive in Kandahar and head to a nightclub

Abel says i thought music was illegal in islam

Kane says it is

They head to a backroom

The bricks of coke are removed from the prisoners asses

The nightclub owner says what the fuck is that smell

A gangster says our next delivery probably one of Hiro's little pranks

Abel says i need a shower all that puke shit and blood makes me want to crawl up and die

The nightclub owner says do you have a place to stay

Kane says no we're wanted criminals in pakistan

The nightclub owner pays them some money for the delivery

The nightclub owner says there's a guy i know who needs two mules for heroin trafficking if you both are interested i can give him a phonecall

Abel says no i need to phone my family

Kane says i also need to phone my family

Abel walks to a phone booth and makes a call

Kane waits for him to finish

Abel says mom i'm in Afghanistan and i don't know how long i'll be here i'll try to get in contact with the british embassy to try to get home but if it doesn't work out i want you to know while our relationship isn't perfect i tried my best to be your son

Kane makes his phonecall

Kane says it's your father... i don't have much time but i'm in trouble and i don't know if i'll see you again i know you and your mother have never approved of my business but i only did it for the money my last job fell through and... i guess... this may be goodbye

Kane finishes his phonecall

Abel says i need to head to the british embassy

Kane says we'll talk about that in a minute

A gangster says we cleaned your car

Kane says how much money do we owe you

The gangster says head over to the classic village coffee house the owner will give you a place to stay

Kane gets in the car

Abel says guess we're living in Afghanistan till we find a way out

Kane says don't go to the embassy you'll just be arrested

Kane takes out a smartphone

Kane shows Abel a photo of both of them wanted for terrorism

Abel says but we did nothing wrong

Kane says the system doesn't care whether we're innocent we're fucked with no way to escape

As they drive Abel says how do you know all this

Kane says because i used to work in counter terrorism

Abel says your CIA

Kane says Constantis Holdings Counter Intelligence

Kane says it was my old job i quit

Abel says why?

Kane says stress i'd keep barfing every time our assets were compromised

Abel says couldn't we contact the media about what happened

Kane says Constantis Holding's and the Department Of Defence censor the media in the middle east and central asia even if we contacted them we'd be hunted down

Abel says damnit

Abel says what about a boat

Kane says they'd catch us at sea

Abel couldn't russia or china help

Kane says China and Russia agreed to stay out of the third world so long as the US granted them access to a trade license on the space ring

Abel sighs

Abel says so what do we do

Kane says we make money and start new lives and live undercover

Abel says do you know anyone who'll give us documents

Kane says no i don't i'll have to ask around

They arrive at the cafe

Kane gets out of the car

Abel follows him inside

Abdul says you Kane

Kane says yes we were told you had a safehouse for us to stay

Abdul takes out a gun

Abdul says if your working for me you'll need this

Kane picks up the gun

Kane puts it in his pocket

Abdul says here's the keys to the safehouse it's in a village called Morad try not to cause the locals trouble it's protected by a militia

Abel says do you have a shower we can use

Abdul says there's one upstairs if you like we can launder your clothes down the street

Kane says you sure i'd rather not be trouble

Abdul says you can pay me back later

Kane and Abel drive to Morad

Abel says just a question but why do i get a new phone while you don't

Kane says my phone is encrypted

Abel says so how exactly does Constantis Holdings work exactly

Kane says what do you want to know

Abel says what exactly do they do

Kane says there's a video on YouTube you can watch Empire Files Lessons Of The Post 9/11 Warpath

Abel says i want to hear it from you

Kane stops the car

Kane says a thing you have to understand is that Constantis Holdings isn't just a world police force it's a form of soft imperialism that controls the third world so corporations can exploit and create scarcity for global markets to prosper for the sake of a few billionaires to accumulate more wealth

Kane says the American Government is usually lobbied by the corporation for government contracts that encompass trillions of dollars most American's pay into it as much as private health insurance and the corporation's that are part of Constantis Holdings are more powerful than most countrys

Abel says makes sense considering we were going to be sold to them

Kane says look i'd tell you more but your stomach would fucking churn

Kane starts driving again

Abel says was it always this way

Kane says there's no difference between the American military and Constantis Holding's it's just a more complete form of inverted totalitarianism

Abel says Inverted Totalitarianism?

Kane says inverted totalitarianism is a form of totalitarianism that mimics a free society but has robber baron economics and nazi state policies that serve corporate power and oligarchy

Abel says so Constantis Holdings is it in practice

Kane says yes though you could probably understand it better if you read The Shock Doctrine by Naomi Klein

The rest of the drive is quiet

They reach a farm house

Abel says this is the place it looks like a weed ridden dump

They unlock the front door

Kane says should be a circuit breaker in the basement

Kane opens a door

Abel takes out a flashlight

Abel says i don't see anything dangerous

Kane finds the circuit breaker

He turns it on

Kane says damnit the breakers fucked

Abel says let me take a look

Abel turns it off and back on again

Kane walks back upstairs and looks in a cupboard

Abel takes out his painkillers and takes one

Kane says we'll have to go shopping for food all we've got is a tin of beans and potato's

Abel says i don't have much cash left

They begin to hear a noise outside

Abel says sounds like a drone

Kane turns on a tv

They chill for a few hours

Abel says do you know when Abdul will call

Kane says nope

Kane says there's gotta be more channels than this

Kane switches the channel

Abel says i think i know that guy from somewhere

Kane says that's Derek Prince he's the owner of Constantis Holdings

Abel says who's that with him

Kane says the Imams Of Peace there a media organisation that preach a Reformation of Islamic society towards modern progressivism

Abel says sounds nice

Kane goes to the sink to fill a glass of water

Suddenly his phone rings

A gangster says there's a shipment i need you pick up from kandahar to helmand airport

Kane says yeah we'll go there now

Abel says i need to take a piss before we go

Kane waits

Kane see's the pill bottle filled with Abel's painkillers

Kane says morphine

Abel walks out of the bathroom

Kane says how did you get morphine this stuff could kill you

Abel says it's none of your fucking business i take them to keep my head

Kane says your a junkie your head isn't in the clear

Abel says i take them in moderation it's fine

Abel says now give them to me

Kane hands them over

They lock the front door and head for the car

They drive to Kandahar

Abel turns on the radio

"In recent news ISIS-K have expanded attacks into the Gizab region in a media event Derrick Prince has allayed concerns and said that Constantis Holdings has control of the area and are deploying more soldiers in the hundreds in the coming month"

Abel says is our place safe

Kane says they'll leave the fighting to local militias and the Afghan militias by the time they deploy more soldiers the damage will already be done

Abel says you haven't answered my question

Kane says yes we should be fine if we don't cause trouble

They arrive in Kandahar outside the cafe

Abdul says park the car round the back

Kane drives the car behind the cafe

Kane says so where's the shipment

They carry a crate and put it inside the car boot

Abdul says take it to Helmand Airport you'll see which hanger you'll enter

Kane gets in the car

They drive off

Abel says how much is heroin exactly

Kane says depends on purity could be anywhere from $50 to $125

Kane says that's just a guess i'd have to google it

Abel yawns

A military vehicle passes them

They drive for about an hour

When they arrive at the airport they drive towards a hangar

Abel says where the hell is security

Kane says it's Afghanistan people look the other way

A group of men armed with small guns are waiting for them

They get out of the car

A man says Kane

Kane says max

Max says where's my money

Kane says ask your boss

Kane says it's not my fault you lost your money it wasn't my fuckup

Max says kill them both

A gangster walks towards kane holding a garotte wire

Kane pulls out his gun and opens fire

Abel runs

Kane keeps firing his gun and moves towards the car

Gangsters run out to help the others

Max shouts kill him

Kane runs out of bullets and gets behind the car

He reloads his pistol

Kane says damnit Abel

Kane aims his gun

As he gets up from cover he's hit by a bullet

Suddenly Abel drives a refueler straight into the hanger towards a jet

Abel jumps out of the refueler

Max and several gangsters are killed by the explosion

Everyone is deafened by the explosion

Abel picks up a shotgun

Abel says Kane you alright

Kane doesn't respond as he tries to get up

Abel says are you hurt

Kane says i'm fine i just need a bandage for the bleeding

Suddenly the gangsters open fire

Kane and Abel get in the car and drive off

Abel says there coming for us

Kane says i can outride them

Abel says the car's full of bullet holes i'm surprised it even runs

Abel aims his shotgun out the window

The cars chase after them

Abel opens fire

Kane takes the car into an alley

Abel says did we lose them

Kane says they know who we are

Kane says or at least me

They keep driving until they reach a traffic junction

Kane keeps his foot on the accelerator

Abel says are you trying to fucking kill us

They avoid a car

The cars pursuing them have accidents

Kane says there the militarys problem now

Abel says will you tell me what the fuck happened back there

Kane says not all my customers are legal i sell to mercenaries and criminals

Abel says your a drug dealer

Kane says no i'm an arms dealer

Abel says what did he mean about his money

Kane says lets just say i pissed off a group of European gangsters in Prague they wanted guns i delivered but on that same shipment was a gang of human traffickers they blamed me but i did nothing wrong

Abel says did you explain that to them

Kane says they demanded there money back which i did give them but they also demanded i pay for losing the whole shipment i refused and they threatened me so i had to leave

Abel takes a pill

Kane says we don't have the heroin or the money Abdul will be furious

Abel says you took a bullet for him if he doesn't like it he can go fuck himself
