Al-Huda Weekend Islamic School

Vision Statement

A community of faithful Muslims who have a firm knowledge base in Islam, rooted in the Quran and Sunnah.

Mission Statement

To provide Muslim students with an opportunity to increase their knowledge in Islam, cultivate positive community relationships and to develop a deeper and more meaningful relationship with Islam and Allah (swt).

Prayer Hall Behavior Expectations

1. Be Respectful
2. Be Organized
3. Stay Quiet

Dress Code Policy

All students and staff are expected to adhere to the Islamic dress code of modesty.

- Loose clothing without human or animal images
- Hijab for girls and long shirt
- Boy shorts should always cover the knee.

Snack Policy

Students should provide their own snacks. Snack time is in between classes only and not during class time itself. Students must make sure they clean up after themselves and throw trash away.

Covid19 Protocols:

All students, staff and visitors must wear a mask while in doors that covers their nose and mouth. Whenever possible, classes may be held outside at teacher's discretion.
