

Board of Education Policy Manual

1000 Series: Community Relations

Policy 1131

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE SCHOOLS

The Superintendent of Schools will be responsible for all communications which deal with the school district and the general public. Building Principals will be responsible for all communications that refer to activities or events within their building. School personnel, PTA, and other groups will clear all communications intended for parents in general or the larger school community with their Building Principal.

Reviewed April 1997