OUR PARTNERSHIPS - BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH MUSIC

About Crew Peligrosos & 4ESkuela

Crew Peligrosos is a Colombian hip-hop collective based in Medellín, Colombia, known for their educational initiative, 4 Elementos Skuela, which runs a nightly school for students from the Aranjuez neighborhood. The group, formed in 1999, is recognized as one of Colombia's leading hip-hop groups and has won numerous awards, including the "Best Hip-Hop Band" award at the Premios Shock (Colombian Grammy Awards). During our trip, we will be working with students at 4ESkuela and hosting free creative workshops through our musical exchange. We will also perform at their music festival.

OUR BILINGUAL TOUR GUIDES & A FEW ARTISTS YOU WILL MEET

Originally from Bogota, Michelle is our Marketing Manager and lives in Medellín where she runs a popular women's fashion brand - Satanas Couture (Tip: Always ask her to take your pics - Thank me later)... Otherwise, she'll be the one dancing.

Mi manito & tour manager, Samuel Burgos (de Tulua) specializes in Event Production and lives in Medellín. He is an amazing artist, musician & producer and leader of the artistic Hip Hop crew, Crescendo Crew. (Please Note: Samuel always orders the fried chicken)

One of Cartagena's most popular singers, Cheo Jose is a musician who blends traditional Caribe Soul and Afrobeats. Most weeknights he performs at one of Cartagena's hottest clubs! Also, you can listen to him on MH the Verb's song, Tapestry.

Afro-Caribbean model & make-up artist, Lizaura Salgado (de Cartagena) is our Afronaut Brand Ambassador in Medellín where she lives and hosts our pop-ups events. She knows all the spots and will always make new friends. Wait, isn't she from that music video? Probably, Yes!

ABOUT THE LOCATIONS

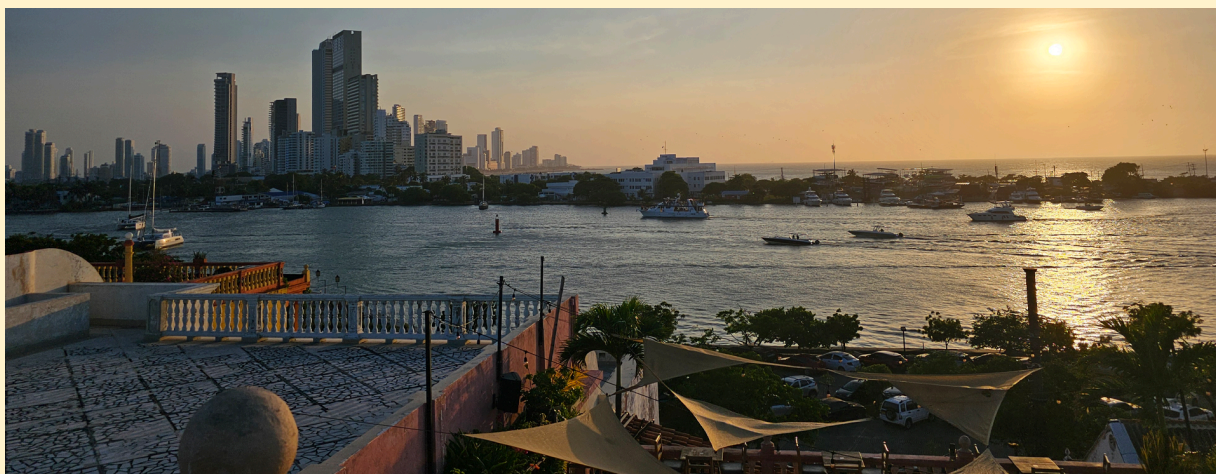

MEDELLIN

We will be staying in Medellín for 5 nights between Tues Nov 19 - Sun Nov 24.

Medellín is the capital of Colombia's mountainous Antioquia province. Nicknamed the “City of Eternal Spring” for its temperate weather, it hosts a famous annual Flower Festival. Modern metrocables link the city to surrounding barrios and offer views of the Aburrá Valley below. Sculptures by Fernando Botero decorate downtown's Botero Plaza, while the Museo de Antioquia displays more of the Colombian artist's work. Make sure to look at the amazing mountains on the drive from the airport. A colorful city with a whole lot of character, our hostel sits in the heart of the hip Provenza neighborhood. Surrounded by culinary hotspots, buzzing bars, and authentic coffee shops, Selina hostel is the perfect place to explore this spellbinding city and meet like-minded travelers and creatives with a zest for art, culture, and music. Our multidimensional hostel is filled with art installations and locally curated murals and a range of accommodation options to suit every travel budget. Guests can take advantage of on-site features, including a rooftop music studio, a café, a vibrant bar, a CoWork, a movie room, and a wellness area to stretch out in a yoga class after a productive day.

CARTAGENA

We will be staying in Cartagena for 3 nights between Sun Nov 24 - Wed Nov 27.

Cartagena is a port city on Colombia's Caribbean coast. By the sea is the walled Old Town, founded in the 16th century, with squares, cobblestone streets and colorful colonial buildings. With a tropical climate, the city is also a popular beach destination. Reachable by boat are Isla de Barú, with white-sand beaches and palm trees, and the Islas del Rosario, known for their coral reefs. Amid the late-night salsa bars and cantinas of Getsemani's historic neighborhood, our hostel's restored colonial building is complete with two outdoor swimming pools, a rooftop terrace, coworking space, bar, courtyard lounge, and a seafood restaurant that serves Colombian dishes daily. Plus, our private suites and community rooms are decorated with modern furniture and locally designed murals. Ogle the 500 year old port city walls from your room and take in views of the Clock Tower, San Pedro Claver Church, and San Felipe de Barajas Castle, all just a 10 minute walk away. After morning yoga at sunrise, refuel with a fruity, regional breakfast before walking over to Trinidad Square to explore the city's architecture led by our expert guides. Back at our hostel, head upstairs for dinner and embrace coconut-infused cocktails and a dose of Afro-Caribbean music from the likes of cumbia and champeta!

TESTIMONIALS FROM PAST TRAVELERS

"There hasn't been a day where we haven't talked about the trip since we got back! Thank you for the incredible experience."

- Pam Copeland, Financial Advisor (Feb 2024)

"My favorite parts of the trip were doing the shows, spending time in the bigger cities (like Medellín) and getting to work in the studio and create music with artists I would never have known before."

- Arjun Dube, Professional Musician (July 2024)

Frequently Asked Questions - for more info: contact us and/or join an info session

- Is traveling in Colombia safe?
 - The border areas and remote parts of Colombia are still risky for travel, but major cities / tourist destinations like Medellín & Cartagena are very safe as long as you stay aware and use your best judgment. Plus, you will be traveling with experienced guides who will be looking out for you.
- How much is this going to cost?
 - Click Here for Prices - feel free to contact us for specific questions & estimates
- Are flights included?
 - You have to buy your tickets TO and FROM Colombia. (We can help with that!) But, only domestic flights are included in your booking fee (ie, flight from Medellín to Cartagena)
