Record a short message as if it were a voice mail for a friend about an event you plan to attend together. Say what the event is, what day and date it is, what time it is, and where it will happen (use “es en” for the location of an event). Don’t forget to say hello to your friend and who you are at the beginning of your recording, and “thank you – goodbye” at the end.