ABOUT THE KARISSA PERONTO MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Karissa was born and raised in the Luxemburg-Casco area and graduated from Luxemburg-Casco High School. Karissa was a caring person and had the desire to help people in need. Her focus on people and her education dedication made her a perfect candidate for the healthcare field. After high school, she followed her passion to be a nurse. She received a Bachelor's degree from UWGB and was employed at Prevea Health in Endocrinology. Karissa had a strong Christian faith, and she touched many lives through her mission trips and her willingness to serve others. It is the desire of Karissa's family to honor her legacy by helping a student realize their dream in the healthcare field.
