

Follow up activities-Sustainable actions by the youngest

Second grades went on a trip to the ecological and educational farm "Pszczółki" is located in northern Małopolska, in a quiet and... a charming corner of the village of Niezwojowice, nearby picturesque fish ponds.

"Pszczółki" is a place where history, old customs and... exquisite cuisine make a perfect trio. Host greets you in the outfit of a scytheman from Raławice, Landlady invite you for delicious homemade croissants Danusia" and to the kingdom of herbs, fruits and vegetables.

"Pszczółki" - the first Museum of Education in Poland

Bees also provides unforgettable experiences impressions during beekeeping workshops.

Around the house there is a large, beautiful garden with an alley linden trees, fruit trees, flowers and herbs, looking colorful and unique almost any time of the year.

In season, you can smoke plums or pickle cabbage here, in the spring you can get your own birch sap, in the summer linden trees are harvested on the farm for delicious tea, and a in winter he tears his feathers. The Eco-shop offers guests a large selection of local and fresh souvenirs ecological products.

The children learned about life in the countryside, the farm area and animals. They participated in traditional pickling of cabbage.

They learned about the properties of cabbage and the dishes it can be used in use it. They saw traditional digging in the field using hand hoes.

They visited the Old School from the 19th century and wrote with a quill pen.

They saw mixing and rolling techniques shaping the dough and prepared croissants with delicious fillings themselves.

