SL:Philip Upwards Tuition Attention

Hi Philip,

Noticed that the inspiring quotes, like 'effort over perfection', your post might not be getting all the attention they could.

My last client that struggled with attention got 24 new leads in under 3 weeks through social media which generated over £10,000(assuming the customers join for a year).

That much attention will definitely bring you more customers and help dominate the market, and I'll work for free to start out.

I'm only going to be working with one client at a time so it might not be long before I'm busy.

If you're interested in solving your attention hassle, reply so we can discuss this project.

Sincerely,

Abdul Malik.
