Oh, oh my darling, where have you gone, where have you run to?
Oh, oh my darling, where have you gone, when you comin home?

Your bed, your bed is cold dear, the pillow is in its place, and I'm alone.
Your chair, your chair is empty, no one to talk to, cause I'm alone.

Am (SLOW) G Am
Oh my darlin, when you comin home?

Am C G
I went, looking for our love, how did it happen, where did it go?
I went, searching for our love, I searched everywhere love, I searched hi and low.

I went to, I went to the mountains, I went to the valleys, I went everywhere.
I went to, the lowest place known to man, I went to the bottom, I went to despair.

Am (SLOW) G Am
Oh my darlin, when you comin home?

Am C G
And slowly, slowly I crawled up, I crawled up that valley, til I saw the sea.
And when I got there, I couldn't see our love, I couldn't see you love, I could only see me.

And I realized, that it was alright dear, that you were not there dear, that you weren't with me.
Cause I learned, now that my bed is cold, and my chairs empty, there's more room for me.

Am (SLOW) G Am
Oh my darlin, when you comin home?

Am C G
The beds waiting, its waiting for someone else, its waiting for someone new, I don't know who it is.
But I know dear, it'll be someone better, someone who can love me, more than you ever did.

For even when you were there, your bed was already cold, your chair was empty; I denied out of fear
That you didn't love me, though you never said so, as I look back dear, the truth is finally clear.

Am (SLOW) G (SLOWER) Am
Oh my darlin, thank you for leaving me home.
