

Please post questions and discussion points from the article "How to Diffuse Difficult Situations in the Classroom" here

1) What grade did she teach?

2 When she mentions "there are many obstacles which may prevent your classroom from being peaceful" does she mean the kids are the obstacles

1. How old is she?

2. What if none of the steps listed work?

3.

what type of student asked the question]

How is the teacher being accused of lying a threat to the class?

What subject did Ms. Mierzw

What was the movie rated?

What did she get in trouble for?

What if a student starts fighting another student and refuses to leave or go to the principal?

How does sitting in a specific spot in the classroom help you?

why were there only 3 steps

what was the movie rated

what happens if a student just walks out of the classroom was she specifically concentrating on one single person or was it more than one student

What happens if students use inappropriate language (swearing)

What could we learn from this?

Should we be easier on Mrs. Carlisto now that we read this?

What was the boy's problem?

Is it really that easy?

What does she teach?

Does she have kids of her own?

Why does she call herself a peacekeeper?

What

What happens if the student gets completely out of control?

why would the parents have a problem with the movie if the teacher thought it was ok?.

How do you discuss certain problems with students with parents

What can happen if a student brings good points to argument about seating?

Why did she present her points in list format?