

Landing page

Aurore Bridges
A La Carte

VERSION

02

LAST UPDATED

6-26-2025

Instructions

Thank you again! It was such a joy working with you and we hope that we can continue to support each other.

DESIGN

Please let us know when you're getting ready to launch as we'll coordinate with your designer to proofread the final content and double check the website for any user experience issues. (If you're the designer, please visit the "For Designers" tab on the left!)

SEO TAGS

We added comments that notate which sections should be H1, H2 or H3 text. (Here's an overview for Showit.) You can only have one H1 per page. It should be something with your main keyword for that page. This is why we made some recommendations for you with the final copy! P and nav tags are usually a little more straightforward, so those aren't listed. We're happy to clarify if you need help, though. Learn how to view the copy without yellow comment highlights (easier for designing) here!

YOUR LAST STEP

Please save a copy of the document. Files are subject to getting moved or archived after 12 months or so. Simply go to File>Download or File>Make a copy. If you choose to make a copy, this will copy the Google document and add it to your drive. Please add it to a folder you can easily find if needed. To keep a version of this with comments, download a Word document.

Can't wait to see where you go from here.

- Lauren & Amy

INDEX: Click the links below to jump between posts.

College Station Landing Page

Grad Photo Outfits

Tips For Senior Photos

Senior Portrait Locations

Graduation Portrait Ideas

COLLEGE STATION LANDING PAGE

Slug:	/tamu-graduation-photos
Meta Description:	Artistic, yet true-to-you TAMU graduation photos, captured with years of experience and an editorial flair. Learn about senior sessions with Aurore Bridges.
Key Phrase:	tamu graduation photos, tamu graduation pictures, a&m graduation pictures, grad photographer
Image Title Format:	keyword-like-this-01.jpg

TAMU Graduation Photos¹ Telling Your Story, Where You've Been & Where You're Going

This is it — the culmination of your hard work, vibrant memories, and the untold road ahead. Let's capture this moment in a real and powerful way. Enjoy expert styling insights and gentle posing guidance so you can be present in the excitement. You'll receive graduation photos that are artistic and timeless so you can look back on this moment with nostalgia (and a well-earned sense of pride!).

Learn more

TAMU Graduation Photos² See The Celebrations

[insert scrolling, curated gallery]

Show me!

¹ Using "The Clover Club" canvas from the experience page.

² Using "Let's Make Something Beautiful" canvas from the home page.

Hats Off From Fellow Graduates³

[insert photo of Jodie]

"I had the best experience taking my senior pictures! Aurore is so sweet, and my photos turned out absolutely amazing!!! She was incredibly responsive and made the whole process so easy and fun. I highly recommend booking her as your photographer!"

- Jodie

[insert photo of Taylor]

"I had the most amazing experience with Aurore! She took my Texas A&M senior pictures and was so kind and intentional throughout the whole picture taking process. I love the way she captures a moment - truly the best!"

- Taylor

[insert photo]

TAMU Graduation Photos⁴

Senior Sessions

Take a moment to soak it all in — your achievements, the memories and the bright future ahead. With an eye for fashion and timeless aesthetics, your graduation photos will be captured with an editorial flair without limitations on location or wardrobe. Look forward to gentle guidance, expert insights and a dash of fun.

Starting at $400 for a one-hour session

³ Using the "Rachel & Jordan" canvas from the experience page.

⁴ Using the "Destination & Domestic" canvas on the information page.

Inquire for more

TAMU Graduation Photos⁵
Insights For A Seamless Senior Session

[insert photo]	The Best Texas A&M Senior Portrait Locations With such a big and beautiful campus, there are so many possibilities. Ease your search with this list of the best locations for grad photos at TAMU. Read more
Grad Photo Outfits: Advice & Inspiration From color schemes to silhouettes, read the best fashion guidance for graduation photo outfits. (Think timeless, not trendy.) Read more	[insert photo]

[insert headshot]

TAMU Grad Photographer⁶

I'm Aurore

A wedding and grad photographer with roots in France and a heart in Texas

Over the years, I've refined the art of portraiture with wedding photography in France and now grad photos here in Texas. Filling each moment with ease and peace, the laughs come easy and the celebrations are effortless — because with me, you'll be encouraged to lean into it all. With my approach, you'll find hints of European elegance and subtle notes of Texas charm that blend seamlessly together.

⁵ Using the "Featured" canvas on the home page.

⁶ Using the "Behind the lens" canvas on the home page.

Learn more about my approach

TAMU Graduation Photos Process⁷
Before We Pop The Bubbles

Say Hi (and Gig Em!) Graduation may be around the corner, but it's never too early to celebrate. To begin, ask about availability for your grad photos here. We'll confirm your date easily with a contract and payment. Then the excitement begins!
	Prep & Plan I'll use my years of experience to guide you with styling and location insights for imagery (maybe befitting of your favorite French couture?). We'll chat through your wardrobe and I'll share advice on the best locations.
Celebrate, Share, Reminisce Receive an online gallery of high-resolution photos within two weeks of your grad photo session. You'll have all printing and sharing rights so your loved ones can celebrate with you. (My favorite is seeing prints at family graduation parties.)

⁷ Using the "How it Works" canvas from the experience page.

TAMU Graduation Photos⁸
Frequently Asked Questions

When should I book my senior session?

It is best to schedule your college senior session about a month before graduation. This allows plenty of time for you to receive your full gallery, and then curate and send your announcements before you walk the stage! For winter grads, this means you should inquire in October to schedule your session for November. Summer graduates may want to begin the process a bit earlier since this is a busy season — think March.

Do you help with posing?

I have years of experience posing individuals and couples alike to feel elevated and natural. Throughout your session, I'll provide gentle guidance and subtle direction to create an organically styled feel. No stiff or cliché posing, just an authentic version of you.

Can you help me pick outfits or choose a location?

Absolutely! After your session is booked, share the vision you have for your grad photos and a little bit about your experience as an Aggie. I'll provide resources to guide you, and then I'll help refine your options using my years of expertise styling and capturing memorable milestones.

⁸ Using FAQs canvas from the experience page.

[insert photo]

TAMU Graduation Photos⁹
Joyfully Document This Long-Awaited Accomplishment

This is what you've worked towards for years.
The late night studying, the life-long bonds, the endless amounts of hard work and dedication.

Let's remember it with iconic style.

Book your session

⁹ Using "Is that you" canvas from the experience page.

Blog posts

Grad Photo Outfits: Advice & Inspiration

Slug:	/grad-photo-outfits
Meta Description:	Finding the balance between stylish and classic for grad photos can be hard. As a photographer in College Station, I'll help you pick the best grad photo outfits.
Key Phrase:	grad photo outfits, graduation photos outfits, graduation picture outfit ideas

Your time in college is coming to a close, and now it's time to sum it up in an outfit (or two). As trends come and go, finding the balance between stylish and classic can be hard. But as a grad photographer in College Station, I will guide you in picking out the best grad photo outfits.

How many grad photo outfits should you choose?

If there is enough time during your session, I recommend having at least two outfits set aside for your graduation photos. This way, you can choose a more classic look, and then another outfit with more flair. Your first option should be a formal or polished look, and your second option can feel more casual.

For kicks, use your cap and gown for a third outfit!

Where to shop for graduation picture outfits

To find a classic, but unique ensemble for your grad photo outfits, check out local boutiques. These stores will have curated collections of stylish pieces, and oftentimes have plenty of options to match your school colors! Sabi Boutique, Hemline, and J&L Boutique are some of the best boutiques in College Station.

Or, while you're on spring break in a new city, check out their shops.

Pro tip: if you care about local businesses or small mom-and-pops, avoid the Amazon add-to-cart shopping for this.

What to wear for graduation pictures: dressy looks

You can't go wrong with a dress! Fitted silhouettes and dainty details can be super flattering against the boxy fit of your graduation regalia. One of the most important considerations, however, is length. You'll want the dress to be long enough so that you can comfortably move around during your photo session. But if you feel more comfortable in a romper or trousers, I absolutely recommend going in that direction. In the end, it's all about choosing what feels most true to you!

What colors to wear for formal grad photos

For color options, matching your school's colors is the way to go (just don't blend in so much that it looks blasé)! Here at TAMU, maroon and white are perfect, but black and cream are good options too. You can also wear complementary colors to help your stole stand out! Solid colors or simple patterns are ideal for a more timeless and classic look. These show up best in photos and keep the focus on you and your amazing accomplishments!

Shoes for formal graduation photos

Comfort is key! A&M is a big campus (as you know!), so choosing shoes that you can comfortably walk in is key if we're taking photos on site. Heels with a thicker block can make walking across campus easier. But if you have your heart set on a beautiful pair of pumps, bring an extra pair of walking shoes just in case!

Formal graduation picture outfit ideas

[insert 1-2 photos of Jodie's grad session in the long blue dress + white minidress]

[insert 1-2 photos of Taylor's grad session in the white dress + stole]

[insert 1-2 photos of Kendall's grad session in the blue dress]

Make it fun! Casual grad photo outfits

Your second outfit choice is where I encourage you to have fun! Whether you want to fully embrace the school spirit with an on-theme look, or make a statement in your favorite color — this second look should be all about showing off your personality.

What colors to wear for casual grad photos

If you want to celebrate your school spirit, wear your school color palette from head to toe. Or if you have a flair for the bold, choose your favorite stand-out color or eye-catching pattern. I've seen everything from hot-pink jumpsuits to pastel floral sundresses for TAMU graduation photos.

Casual graduation picture outfit ideas

Here in College Station, game day was likely a huge part of your Aggie experience. You can pay homage to that with a maroon jersey, denim shorts, and your favorite pair of boots. Or if you were known as the most stylish girl in your sorority chapter, don't hesitate to make your outfit pop.

[insert 1-2 photos of Taylor's grad session in the hot pink jumpsuit + blue floral dress]

[insert 1-2 photos of Jodie's grad session in the floral sundress]

Love these grad photo outfits, but don't know where to begin?

You can find more inspiration over on Pinterest. Rent The Runway is also a favorite option for high-end clothing rentals and unique pieces.

As a grad photographer in College Station, I love helping soon-to-be graduates curate a collection of looks that feel classic, yet true to them. Get in touch, we can talk about your vision and which ensemble will help you shine brightest. You can find more tips for senior photos here.

Tips for Senior Photos: How to Prepare & What To Bring

Slug:	/tips-for-senior-photos
Meta Description:	Learn the must-know tips for senior photos from a grad photographer in College Station. Get insights about how to prepare and what to bring.
Key Phrase:	tips for senior photos, tips for senior pictures, senior portrait tips

Your graduation photos are more than a fun photoshoot. These images will be keepsakes to remind you of not only your impressive accomplishments, but the years of memories you've made. As a grad photographer, I'll walk you through the best insights and tips for senior photos to prepare you.

Tips For Senior Photos: Preparing for a Successful Grad Session

Find inspiration

If you have a distinct vision for your graduation photos, sharing your inspiration will be the best way to ensure your photographer can fulfill it. And you can find inspiration from so many places — Instagram, fellow classmates, your favorite creators, movies, and art. I've found that the easiest way to gather and share these ideas is through Pinterest.

Start by looking at posing and photography styles that you like to establish the overall vision for your session. Then, find more specific inspiration for things like location, wardrobe, and props.

Here are a few helpful questions to ask yourself when choosing the vision for your senior photos:

- How do I want to feel when I look back at these photos?
- What about my college experience do I want to remember and celebrate most?
- Do I want to feel styled and posed or natural and candid?

Looking and feeling your best

One of the best recommendations I can give you in preparing for your senior session is to avoid making any drastic changes to your appearance in the days before your session. Book any haircuts, tans, eyelash extensions, etc., 1-2 weeks before your photos. And when you do, avoid changing things up too much. This way you'll feel true to yourself and comfortable in a look that you are familiar with.

In the days leading up to your session, it's best to:

- Drink plenty of water, your skin will thank you!
- Practice any hair or makeup styles you want to wear for your session.
- Get your manicure and pedicure (neutral colors are usually an easy yes!)

Choosing a wardrobe you'll love

After you've found some guiding lights on Pinterest, start gathering your wardrobe pieces. Choose something that is comfortable, stylish, and most of all, authentic to you. I recommend having 2-3 ensembles, then confirming with your photographer which options will be best. A good grad photographer will have insights into which patterns, colors, and silhouettes will photograph best and stand up to time.

More tips to consider for your grad photo outfits:

- Choose colors that complement your skin tone and your school colors
- Your outfits can be dressy or casual (I recommend curating options for both!)
- Avoid large logos (unless it's your school's!)

For more insights and inspiration for your wardrobe, I have an entire blog post dedicated to grad photo outfits.

Tips for Senior Pictures: The Day Before & Day of Your Session

From beginning to end, there are some key tips to make sure your session goes as smoothly as possible!

Prepping the night before

- Double-check your wardrobe choices for any stains or stray tags
- Take care of any wrinkles and iron your clothes
- Gather your chosen props in one place, including cap and gown, stoles, and class rings
- Moisturize and hydrate! Keep your skin happy and healthy!
- Get plenty of rest, you'll be happy to have the energy

The morning of your senior photos

- Set aside plenty of time to get ready, you don't want to feel rushed
- While you get ready, put on your favorite playlist to set the tone!
- Avoid wearing tight-fitting clothing or accessories (like an Apple Watch) that might leave an indent on your skin
- Eat a meal that will keep you satisfied, but avoid foods you know will make you feel sluggish or bloated.

What to bring to your senior session:

- Comfortable shoes (especially if all your outfits are paired with heels!)
- Photo props
- Wrinkle release spray (you can usually find travel-sized bottles at your local grocery store!)
- Hairspray, a brush, and extra hairpins
- Touch-up makeup, like powder and lip color
- Additional outfit options
- A confident mindset (have fun!!)

Need More Tips for Senior Photos?

Preparing for your grad photos doesn't have to be stressful. As a grad photographer in College Station, my approach brings peace and ease to the entire process. For more insights about how to prepare, see my blogs about grad photo outfits and senior portrait locations. And if you're ready to make the entire experience effortless, get in touch.

The Best Texas A&M Senior Portrait Locations

Slug:	/senior-portrait-locations
Meta Description:	With over 5,200 acres of manicured grounds, TAMU campus offers countless scenic spots. These are the best Texas A&M senior portrait locations for your session.
Key Phrase:	senior portrait locations, locations for senior pictures, senior pictures locations, senior photos locations

Standing on over 5,200 acres of manicured grounds, TAMU campus offers countless scenic spots. But where should you take your grad photos? Let's review the best Texas A&M senior portrait locations for your session.

The Best Senior Portrait Locations at TAMU

Kyle Field

You know it and love it; this iconic fixture of TAMU campus has been the epicenter of endless memories for countless fellow Aggies. From your first days at Fish camp to your final yell during football season — a few casual photos in front of this landmark will help commemorate it all. I love taking a few photos here with your favorite gameday getup — think a maroon jersey and your trusty cowboy boots.

[insert photos in front of Kyle Field]

The Academic Building

With over a century of history, this Neoclassical building is one of the most beautiful on campus. From the copper dome to the spacious rotunda to the ionic columns, this building's architecture creates a timeless atmosphere that is the perfect backdrop for some dressed-up grad photos.

[insert photos in front of the Academic Building]

The Gardens

For early spring grad photos, there couldn't be a better location than the Gardens on campus. Covering seven acres of land, these gardens include everything from butterfly gardens, fragrant herbs, and even a grape vineyard. The gardens are most picturesque from March to April, with fields of blooming bluebonnets and wildflowers. This location pairs beautifully with a white sundress or a casually dressy wardrobe.

[insert photos in front of the Gardens]

The Administration Building

This is where you'll get those iconic column and stair-step photos. With 14 columns, ornate moulding, and iron doors, the pristine facade of this building creates a beautiful academic feel. At the top of the steps, the white stone and tiled floor add a great contrast. I love taking cap and gown photos here, so bring your stole and other regalia for the complete look.

Just keep in mind that during peak grad photo season, the wait for this building can be upwards of an hour. If you're set on including this popular location, take that into account when scheduling your session.

[insert photos in front of the Administration Building]

The Association of Former Students + The Fountain

There are so many fun photo opportunities here! Between the iconic giant Aggie ring and Kyle Field as your backdrop, it doesn't get any more quintessentially Aggie than this. For a bit of variety, take a few close-ups against the green ivy wall. But my favorite has to be the nearby fountain. The tradition of hopping in the fountain, popping a bottle of champagne, and throwing confetti is one of the most fun parts of grad photos.

[insert photos at the Association of Former Students and the fountain]

The Military Walk

As an A&M staple, the Military Walk offers a wide range of scenery and backdrops for your grad photos. Taking a stroll along this beloved walkway, steeped in tradition and at the heart of TAMU campus, is a simple yet beautiful way to encapsulate the unique feeling found only in Aggieland.

[insert photos at the Military Walk]

Northgate (or your favorite coffee shop!)

While yes, so much of your time in college is spent studying and preparing for your future, the memories made on late nights out should be remembered too. As the go-to spot for celebrations or hangouts with your closest friends, your favorite bar or nearby cafe can add a unique flair to your grad photos. The front of the Dixie Chicken and Bottle Cap Alleyway are some of the best spots.

[insert photos at Northgate]

Still Searching for the Perfect Senior Portrait Location?

With such a vast campus, we can find something that perfectly fits your vision. And if you want to change locations completely, I'll do the research as your grad photographer to point you in the right direction. Get in touch to start planning your graduation pictures today!

Slug:	/graduation-portraits-ideas
Meta Description:	From unique graduation portrait ideas to prop inspiration to outfits and location selection, this blog post is the complete guide for memorable TAMU senior pictures.
Key Phrase:	graduation portraits ideas, what to wear for senior pictures, photos props for graduation, posing for graduation photos

From unique graduation portrait ideas to prop inspiration to outfits and location selection, this blog post is the complete guide for memorable TAMU senior pictures.

Creative Graduation Portrait Ideas

It isn't easy to sum up the years of hard work and dedication into a few photos, but these graduation portrait ideas can help you have a fun session and imagery full of meaning.

1. Champagne pop

What better way to celebrate four years of hard work than with a classic champagne pop! Grab a bottle of your favorite bubbles and bring it along for the session. Your photographer will direct you about the best way to shake and open the bottle. Though, keep in mind that this can get a little messy, so it's best to save this idea for the end of your session to avoid staining your clothes.

2. Extracurricular activities

Whether you were the president of your sorority, a member of your school's honor society, or a star volleyball player, the people you met and experiences you had through your organizations played an important role in your time at TAMU. Honor your extracurricular activities in your grad photos with props or at a location that encapsulates your involvement.

3. Include your friends, family or significant other

Your support system is what helped you get through those difficult finals seasons and stressful classes. Including them in your graduation portraits is a beautiful way to honor them too (with your photographer's permission!). Whether it's your solid friend group, your college sweetheart or your supportive family, take some time during your session to celebrate with them. I love capturing these special bonds during senior photos!

Photos Props for Graduation

I love encouraging my seniors to bring a few props to add a bit of character and dynamic poses.

Your cap, gown, stoles and cords

These are a must! Your graduation regalia will be the most important prop needed for your session. Don't forget these (and make sure they're ironed and wrinkle-free before your session)!

Class ring

Show off that glittering symbol of your time as an Aggie throughout your session.

Your dog!

Our furry family members are such an important part of our support system. Bring your pup decked out in Aggie gear for a sweet moment during your session.

12th Man Towel

This is a great addition to your casual look. Twirl it proudly in front of Kyle Field to honor all the Aggie yells as the 12th man.

Gear from your extracurricular activity or major

Whether it's a gavel for your time as sorority president, a stethoscope to represent your pre-med studies, or a hard hat for your engineering experience, a prop to symbolize your interests while at TAMU is a great way to add some personality to your photos.

Posing for Graduation Photos

Before your session, let your photographer know the vision you have for your graduation portraits. A good grad photographer will be able to naturally direct and pose you for beautiful results. But if you still need some inspiration, these are some of my favorite poses for graduation photos.

Over the shoulder

Facing away from the camera, take your stole in your left hand and fold it in half. Place the stole over your left shoulder, take a step with your right foot and look back at the camera with your body at a slight angle.

I love styling this pose down scenic walkways or up a grand stairway. It's a great way to show off your stole and any additional regalia that display your achievements.

Toss the cap

This one is a classic for a reason! With your dominant hand, hold your cap at the corner down by your waist. In one motion, throw the cap up in the air (with a little bit of force, but not too much) and keep your arm up until the cap falls to the ground. You can either look up at your cap or smile at the camera.

For a little bit of extra playfulness, you can even pop one of your feet up. The movement and joy that this pose portrays make it an all-time favorite.

The elegant sit

Seated on either a step or bench, turn your body at a 45-degree angle. With your legs slightly bent in front of you, cross your front ankle in front of the other. Lean back on your front hand and softly place your other hand across your body, on top of your front thigh. Now smile! This pose creates some of the best headshots of your session.

Pro tip: try to gently point your feet. This will lengthen and add a bit more elegance to the pose!

[insert photo from Taylor's session, sitting in the white dress]

Find the right location

As a photographer, trust me when I say that the right location can make all the difference in your imagery. From the lighting to backdrops to the atmosphere, where you take your graduation portraits can have a big impact on the results. That's why it is so important to do your research and collaborate closely with your grad photographer. They will likely know some of the best photo locations on campus, then guide you in the right direction.

Embrace unique locations

Be intentional about the locations you do choose. Don't just settle on the same location everyone else went to. Think about spots on campus or around town that mean the most to you. Where did you study the most? Which building did you spend the most time in? Which walkway was your favorite place to catch up with friends? Don't be afraid to recommend these meaningful locations to your photographer — they can help you decide if the setting is right for your photos.

If you need specific ideas, read my full guide about the best grad photo locations at TAMU.

What to Wear For Senior Pictures

As a grad photographer, I like to recommend choosing at least two outfits for your session. This way, you can have both a classic dressy option, as well as a more casual and personality-filled ensemble. However, depending on your session length, there may be time for more. Talk with your photographer to see their recommendations based on your session length and the locations you choose.

Silhouettes and styles

Think about both comfort and style. If you choose a dress or skirt, make sure it's long enough so moving throughout your session is comfortable. But if you prefer a jumpsuit, romper, or trousers, go for it. The best recommendation overall is to wear what feels authentic to you!

What colors to wear for senior photos

When choosing your outfits, consider colors that complement your features and your school's colors. Ensure that at least one of your outfits coordinates well with your graduation regalia, then have fun with the other! Opt for solid colors or simple patterns — these will photograph best.

For more inspiration and guidance about grad photo outfits, read this blog!

Get in Touch for More Graduation Portrait Ideas!

There are so many exciting things to consider for your TAMU graduation photos. But choosing the locations, outfits and posing can be a breeze with the right photographer. Get in touch to start planning your grad photos session, and follow along on Instagram for more inspiration.

Important

DON'T JUST HIT PUBLISH. THERE ARE TWO MORE STEPS!

These posts were carefully created to make the biggest impact possible on your search engine traffic. However, the last thing we want is for you to publish blog posts that get no visitors.

To avoid any delays in traffic, please:

- 1. Make sure your sitemap has been submitted to Google Search Console. Here's how!

This sounds complicated, but it's quick and only needs to be done once (unless you launch a new site or change domains).

- 2. Manually submit each blog post. Use this tutorial!

This is how we notify Google of new content, and get it to show up on search engine results even faster!

- 3. Bonus: Share on Instagram, add to Pinterest and send in a newsletter!

FAQs

01. HOW SOON SHOULD I PUBLISH?

The earlier you post these, the earlier the results can roll in! Try not to delay as we wrote these based on recent research, which will perform best if posted within 4-6 weeks.

02. SHOULD I POST IN ANY PARTICULAR ORDER?

We typically write them in the order of ideal posting! The only reason the order matters is if we link from one post to another — you'll need to then go in and update the URL to go to the live blog post!

03. IS IT BEST TO PUBLISH ALL AT ONCE OR SPREAD IT OUT?

We suggest scheduling out publications to once per week or twice a week until they're all live! If you're in WordPress, you can schedule this in advance.

Thank you!

THANK YOU!

Finally, ready-to-use copy written by a team that knows you and your niche. These are the words that will convert and connect to the right clients. Tag @saltedpages on Instagram with any behind-the-scenes moments as we work together. If you need more done-for-you blog posts, just fill out this order form to request the types and quantity. Nothing will be booked until we personally review your request and confirm availability!

JOIN THE SALTED FACEBOOK GROUP

With your project full steam ahead, we invite you to take a seat at the table too. As a Salted client, you are highly encouraged to join the Salted Pages Group on Facebook. This is where creatives like you come to get feedback, ask questions and find a community to talk through ideas with.

HELP US MAKE WAVES

Our world is better with your friends in it. Refer an entrepreneur, and upon their full payment and completion of a custom copywriting project with Salted Pages, you'll receive a cashback thank you through Paypal.