Sure! But each reservation or application is individual. If you're attending with someone, both people must reserve or apply and indicate each other's names.

Can I bring my child?

We love that The Village attracts caregivers and community-minded parents. Subject to demand, we are working on a way to accommodate children.

If you're considering bringing a child, please indicate on your application, or email us at hello@bysengo.com so we can discuss your specific situation, space availability, and the best way to support your experience.

Is this a women's retreat?

No. The Village is open to all genders. It is intentionally inclusive and designed for those who value integrity, generosity, creativity, and care.

What's the cancellation/refund policy?

- Contributor deposits ($350) are non-refundable after 30 days
 - Paid guests may cancel up to 90 days before the retreat for a refund.
