

WHAT IS MY GRADE 4 STUDENT LEARNING IN MODULE 4?

Wit & Wisdom® is our English curriculum. It builds knowledge of key topics in history, science, and literature through the study of excellent texts. By reading and responding to stories and nonfiction texts, we will build knowledge of the following topics:

Module 1: A Great Heart

Module 2: Extreme Settings

Module 3: The Redcoats Are Coming!

Module 4: Myth Making

In Module 4, we will read and analyze myths from the ancient Greeks and Romans, as well as Native American tribes, to learn the purpose and importance of these stories in their cultures. Students will also enjoy reading Walk Two Moons, a beautiful tapestry of stories within stories, to reveal a modern-day myth that captures a snapshot of our human experience. We will ask the question: What can we learn from myths and stories?

IDEAS FOR TALKING ABOUT MYTHS AND STORIES

Ask your Grade 4 student to do the following with you:

- Explain what makes a myth a myth.
- Retell a myth, and explain its purpose.
- Explain why people first created myths.
- Explain the two main types of myths.
- Discuss what the ancient Greeks learned from myths.
- Summarize what was happening in the books read in class.
- Create a comic strip story map to record in pictures what is happening in each story that is read in class. Discuss with your child each night.
- Practice reading aloud the fluency passages assigned for homework.
- Discuss the characters in Walk Two Moons. Who are they? Why are they important to the story?
- Discuss the trip Salamanca takes with her grandparents. Ask where they traveled to each day, and look these places up together in books and on the internet.
- Write your own family myth, and share it with others.
