History Day

Process Paper

Your process paper is a short essay explaining how you selected your topic, conducted your research, and developed your poster. We will get started in class, but you will be asked to finish this at home. Your process paper must be typed, or neatly written, on white paper. Your process paper is due at the time of your poster.

Explain how you chose your topic
Explain how you conducted your research

Explain how you developed your poster
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	·

 _					