

Title bolded, 16-point Arial, centered

Firstname Familyname¹, Second Author², Third Author³ (centered, 12-point Arial, presenting author's name is bolded and underlined)

¹ Affiliation of the presenting author, Department name, University name, at the city, post-code, Country. (11-point Arial, left-aligned)

Email: firstauthor@domaine.name (Presenting author's email address should be underlined)

² Affiliation of the Second author, Department name, University name, at the city, post-code, Country. (11-point Arial, left-aligned)

Email: secondauthor@domaine.name

³ Affiliation of the third author, Department name, University name, at the city, post-code, Country. (11-point Arial, left-aligned)

Email: Thirdauthor@domaine.name

Abstract

Type or paste your text into this file, and use a single-spaced 11-point Arial. Paragraphs are justified (straight-edged) on both left and right. A research paper abstract typically includes a brief summary of the Background, Method, Results, and Conclusion, along with relevant keywords. Leave a line gap between paragraphs. The limit for your abstract is 300 words.

Presenting author must be identified in bold letters and underlined. Presenting authors, first name, surname, email address, and full mailing address must be included in the abstract. The email and mailing addresses of co-authors should be included in the abstract. Select the topic area in which you wish to make a presentation at APACPH 2025.

The deadline for abstract submission is Aug 31, 2025. Please note that this date may be subject to change; refer to the APACPH2025 website for the most up-to-date information. Authors will be informed about acceptance for presentation via email. Abstracts that do not meet these formatting requirements will be returned. The organizing committee reserves the right to edit abstracts for clarity or correctness of English