

Argumentation.io

With Good Reason eBook+/Course Site

Features

- Full content of With Good Reason ebook (six chapters organized into modules)
- Argument mapping and authentic examples for greater pedagogical effectiveness
- Question banks with over 50 questions per module, organized into medium, easy, and hard
- Ideal for the critical thinking component of a mixed critical-thinking/philosophy course
- Part of a fully accessible argument mapping course—the first and only of its kind
- Efficient student submission and grading with the argumentation.io “Snapshot” feature
- Instructors can customize based on their individual preferences
- Slides, assignment prompts, feedback templates, and other teaching materials

How to import With Good Reason into your Canvas course site

1. Download the With Good Reason ebook+ here (this is a “Common cartridge 1.x package” file)
 - a. Please note: your browser won’t be able to preview this file.
2. Go to “Settings” in your Canvas course site
3. Select “Import course content”
4. From the “Content type” menu, select “Common cartridge 1.x package”
5. Source: choose the With Good Reason file linked in step 1
6. Default question bank: leave blank
7. Content: All content
8. Options: Leave both boxes blank
9. Do not convert Quizzes to New Quizzes

10. Click “Import”

Your course site should now have With Good Reason’s modules, quizzes, and question banks.

To confirm that the upload succeeded:

1. Go to “Quizzes” in the course site into which you imported With Good Reason.
2. Click the three dots in the upper right-hand corner and select “Manage question banks.”
3. Check that, for each Module, there are two question banks with 17 questions and one with 16.
4. Pick a random module quiz, like Module 2 Medium.
5. Select the “Show question details” box
6. Ensure that each question has content (generally an image of a map and a brief explanation) in the “General answer comments” box.
7. Repeat for another module or two.

Once you’ve confirmed that the import was successful, consider looking at the materials in the “For Instructors - Course Site Guide” Module.

Contact

Join our Discord community: <https://discord.com/invite/SvNrhXhxcw>

Email us: argumentationcompany@gmail.com