A PERSON SHALL BE RELEASED ON BAIL BY SUFFICIENT SURETIES, EXCEPT FOR:

- (a) Capital crimes when the facts are evident or the presumption great;
 - (b) Felony offenses involving acts of violence on another person, or felony sexual assault offenses on another person, when the facts are evident or the presumption great and the court finds based upon clear and convincing evidence that there is a substantial likelihood the person's release would result in great bodily harm to others; or
 - (c) Felony offenses when the facts are evident or the presumption great and the court finds based on clear and convincing evidence that the person has threatened another with great bodily harm and that there is a substantial likelihood that the person would carry out the threat if released.
- Excessive bail may not be required. In fixing the amount of bail, the court shall take into consideration the seriousness of the offense charged, the previous criminal record of the defendant, and the probability of his or her appearing at the trial or hearing of the case.
- A person may be released at the court's discretion.

Any person who has been arrested for, or charged with, an offense other than a capital offense may be released on his or her own recognizance by a court or magistrate who could release a defendant from custody upon the defendant giving bail, including a defendant arrested upon an out-of-county warrant.

A defendant who is in custody and is arraigned on a complaint alleging an offense which is a misdemeanor... shall be entitled to an own recognizance release unless the court makes a finding on the record ... that an own recognizance release will compromise public safety or will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. Public safety shall be the primary consideration. If the court makes one of those findings, the court shall then set bail and specify the conditions, if any, whereunder the defendant shall be released.

- Supervise defendants whose release is conditioned upon submitting to court-ordered supervision;
- Conduct interviews to determine whether a defendant is eligible for OR release
- Administer a standardized screening process for all defendants;
- Verify information collected during interviews;
- Conduct background investigations;
- Assess defendants' needs for services;
- Present the court with risk assessments using validated risk assessment tools;
- Conduct follow-up reviews for defendants who did not satisfy the original conditions for release; and
- Make recommendations to the court regarding release

What is the penalty for failing to appear for trial?

041

Except as otherwise provided by this article, in each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest or the person having custody of the person arrested shall take the person arrested or have him taken without unnecessary delay, but not later than 48 hours after the person is arrested, before the magistrate who may have ordered the arrest, before some magistrate of the county where the arrest was made, without an order, or, to provide more expeditiously to the person arrested the warnings described by Article 15.17 of this Code, before a magistrate in any other county of this state. The magistrate shall immediately perform the duties described in Article 15.17 of this Code.
