

Humanitarian Award - Hall of Fame Nominee Assessment Form

Category	3-Above Average Rationale	2-Average Rationale	1-Below Average Rationale	0-Poor or None Provided	Score
Achievements and Accolades Weight: 40%	Nominee has substantial accomplishments in one of the following areas: • Medical research and development that increased the alleviation or cure of disease or provides groundbreaking new information that is recognized and awarded by professional medical groups. • Aiding those less fortunate in impoverished nations, villages, or communities. • Direct involvement in rescue and/or lifesaving efforts. (i.e.: military service) • Dedication to improving the health and well-being of others. • Significant involvement with the preparation, prevention, and/or response to natural and/or man-made disasters and emergency situations. Nominee has devoted their life to the welfare of humanity in the United States and/or internationally.	Nominee has moderate accomplishments in one of the following areas: • Medical research and development that increased the alleviation or cure of disease or provides groundbreaking new information that is recognized and awarded by professional medical groups. • Aiding those less fortunate in impoverished nations, villages, or communities. • Direct involvement in rescue and/or lifesaving efforts. • Dedication to improving the health and well-being of others. • Significant involvement with the preparation, prevention, and/or response to natural and/or man-made disasters and emergency situations. Nominee has devoted their life to the welfare of humanity in the United States and/or internationally.	Nominee has below average accomplishments in one of the following areas or is currently working on projects not yet complete in one of the following areas: • Medical research and development that increased the alleviation or cure of disease or provides groundbreaking new information that is recognized and awarded by professional medical groups. • Aiding those less fortunate in impoverished nations, villages, or communities. • Direct involvement in rescue and/or lifesaving efforts. • Dedication to improving the health and well-being of others. • Significant involvement with the preparation, prevention, and/or response to natural and/or man-made disasters and emergency situations. Nominee has devoted their life to the welfare of humanity in the United States and/or internationally.	No achievements or accolades.
Narrative Assessment Weight: 15%	Clear narrative substantively explaining why the candidate is an exemplary nominee.	Narrative provides a general understanding of why the candidate is an ideal nominee.	Narrative is lacking substantive explanation.	No narrative provided.
Supporting Documentation (newspaper clippings, stats, letters from supporters/coaches/mentors/supervisors) Weight: 20%	Substantively supports narrative and providing definitive proof of individuals.	Adequately supports narrative and provides an acceptable proof of accomplishment.	Inadequately supports the narrative and lacks overall supporting.	None submitted.
Candidate Awareness Weight: 10%	Candidate is aware of nomination.			Candidate is not aware or does not support the nomination.

Professional/Social Reputation/Character Weight: 10%	Remains in good standing within their respective community. Three letters of recommendation from individuals within their immediate community.	Remains in good standing within their respective community. Two letters of recommendation from individuals within their immediate community.	Does not remain in good standing within immediate community. History of substantial rule violations or criminal activities. No letters of recommendation.	Does not remain in good standing within immediate community. History of substantial rule violations or criminal activities. No letters of recommendation.
Overall Quality of Candidate Weight: 5%	The nominee's overall body of work and supporting documents are worthy of highest recommendation.	The nominee's overall body of work and supporting documents are worthy of recommendation.		The nominee's overall body of work and supporting documents are not worthy of recommendation.
Notes:					/18
_____ Recommend for nomination to the Derry Area Hall of Fame _____ Not recommended for nomination to the Derry Area Hall of Fame. Committee Member Initials: _____ Date: _____					