

Privacy Policy

Personal information refers to all kinds of information recorded electronically or otherwise relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. Techxagon Ltd("We", "our" or "us") are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. While you use Bunny Gold Rush("App" or "Service(s)") , we will collect, use, disclose, store, share and protect personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully to understand our practices regarding your privacy before using the App. Please do not use the App if you do not agree to this Privacy Policy.

Collection of Information

When you use the App, we may collect non-personally identifiable information from you and it may include, without limitation: (a) the type, brand, and language of handset device;(b) mobile operating system; (c) the type and operator of network;(d) device identifiers(such as IDFA, IDFV, GAID);(e) the date and time you access this App and the duration of your visit;(f) behavioral usage of the App.

Use of Information

We use and share your information to provide the Services to you, which includes support, personalization, and communication about the Services.

We use your information collected across the Services to detect fraud and prevent financial losses for us.

We may use your information to serve you ads provided by third-party.

Sharing of Information

We share information with the following third parties that support us in delivering and analyzing the Services.

Law Enforcement, Regulators and Other Parties for Legal and Security Reasons. We may disclose your information when necessary to protect the legal rights of us, Users or third parties, in order to avoid fraud, manage our risks or comply with applicable laws, legal orders or processes. This includes exchanging information with other companies for these purposes. In these cases, we disclose your information to comply with legal obligations or to protect the legitimate interests of us or affected third parties.

Service Providers. We have agreements with various service providers to facilitate delivery of the Services, which include those we engage to give customer support, operate the technical infrastructure needed to provide the Services, assist in providing you rewards and protecting and securing our systems and Services and to help market Services.

Your Rights

Depending on your jurisdiction, your rights may include:

Right to withdraw consent. If you have provided us with consent, you may withdraw your consent for the collection and processing of your information at any time by sending us a written request. Upon receipt of your notice of withdrawal of consent, we will immediately cease processing your information. Withdrawing consent may affect your use of the Services, such as access to certain activities and eligibility for rewards.

Right to delete your information or delete your account. Upon deleting your account, any points you have earned but not redeemed will be deleted. We may not be able to delete all data you request, for example, to comply with applicable tax laws.

Right to object to the processing of personal data. If we receive such a request, we will review your objection and promptly delete the information we process for the purpose to which you object, unless there is another legal basis for processing and retaining this data or applicable law requires us to retain such information.

Security of Information

We implement administrative, organizational, technical, and physical safeguards to protect the personal data we collect and process. These measures include encryption, firewalls, and access control systems. Our security controls are designed to maintain appropriate levels of data confidentiality, integrity, availability, resilience, and recovery. We regularly test our systems and other assets for security vulnerabilities.

Despite our security measures, if a security breach occurs that could negatively impact your privacy, we will promptly notify you and other affected parties and, as required by applicable data protection laws, notify the relevant authorities.

Retention of Information

We determine the period of retention of your data based on the following circumstances:

The time required to provide you with the service;

The time required to achieve the purpose for which the data was originally collected;

The period for which we are required to fulfill relevant legal obligations.

In general, we will store your data for the entire life cycle of operating this application. After that, your information will be completely deleted or anonymized for a certain period of time for analysis purposes.

Children Under 14

We do not intentionally collect personal information of persons under 14 years old . If you are under the aforementioned age limit, you want to use this App which requires you to submit your personal information, please get your legal guardian to do so on your behalf. You should not provide us with your personal information without the consent of your legal guardian.

If a guardian becomes aware that his or her child has provided us with personal data without their consent, he or she should promptly contact us and we will take reasonable steps to ensure that such data is deleted from our files.

Third-Party Partners

The App contains links to websites, services, applications, etc. provided by third parties. Please note that we do not control any services, websites, or applications provided by third parties, and are not responsible for the accuracy, timeliness, security, or continued availability or availability of information provided by third parties. The privacy policies of these third parties may differ from this Privacy Policy. We recommend that you read the privacy policies of any third parties you may visit.
