

Hello! You may remember the survey I posted here about a week ago that asked what your favorite and least favorite songs are in addition to what you would guess the community's favorite and least favorite songs are. I want to thank all 906 people who took my survey. I analyzed the results, some of which are more interesting than others.

All conclusions are drawn from voluntary response only, so conclusions cannot be drawn that apply to the community as a whole.

I'm only going to list the top 5 answers for each question. I can post the link for the spreadsheet that collected the data if you would like to see where your lesser-known favorite ranked.

Conclusion

The community's favorite song from Taylor Swift (2006) is "Our Song." The community's least favorite song from this album is "A Perfectly Good Heart." Both favorite and least favorite were accurately guessed.

"Prefer Not to Answer/Don't Know" was the top answer for both least favorite and the guess for least favorite, which I assume comes from people either having not heard all of the songs to be able to judge which one they like the least or possibly comes from people not disliking any of the songs enough to label one as their least favorite. "Mary's Song (Oh My My My)" appeared in both the favorite and least favorite groups, making it one of the more controversial songs by Taylor.

Conclusion

The majority of you guessed that “Love Story” was the community’s favorite song from Fearless (2008), however the community’s actual favorite is “The Way I Loved You.” “Superstar” was accurately guessed as the community’s least favorite.

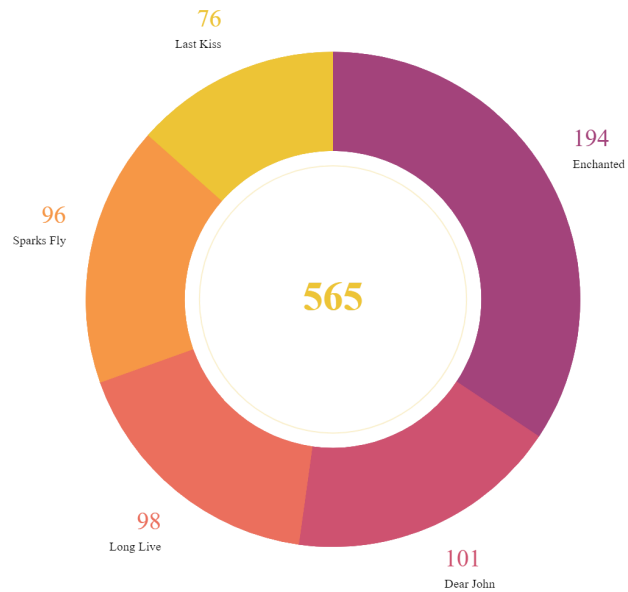

I think the two most popular singles from this album are more talked about than the non-single songs that actually ended up being chosen as favorites, which is why “Love Story” and “You Belong With Me” were guessed more highly to be favorites than were actually chosen as favorites.

“Enchanted” was accurately guessed as the favorite track on Speak Now (2010). “Innocent” was voted as the least favorite song on this album, but “Better Than Revenge” was guessed to be the community’s least favorite.

I forgot to add the Speak Now (2010) deluxe tracks: “Ours,” “If This Was a Movie,” and “Superman.” Due to this, the results may have been different had I included those tracks.

5. Starlight = 3.0%

What Song You Think is the Community's Least Favorite

Conclusion

It's pretty clear that "All Too Well" is by far the most popular song from Red (2012) and everyone knows it, as it was the most voted favorite and by far the most guessed favorite. The community's least favorite song is "Girl at Home," but was guessed to be "Stay Stay Stay," which was the second-least favorite song.

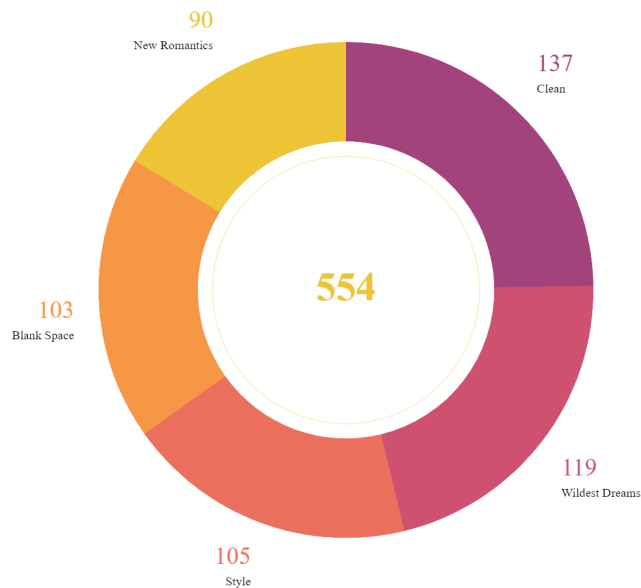

It's interesting how the most preferred and least preferred songs from this album are not singles. I think that speaks to how unmemorable the singles are compared to other songs on this album. "All Too Well," "Holy Ground," and "State of Grace" were the top three most voted favorites off this album, none of which were singles. Although the songs most guessed to be favorites after "All Too Well" were singles: "I Knew You Were Trouble," "We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together," and "22," they got so few votes, it was inconsequential. Even the songs that were least favorites, were remembered over others. Neither "Stay Stay Stay" nor "Girl at Home" were singles, but were remembered well enough to be highly voted as least favorites. It's also interesting how the least favorite, "Girl at Home" is a bonus track, which one would assume is supposed to be better than songs that are not bonus tracks.

5. Shake It Off = 8.4%

What Song You Think is the Community's Least Favorite

Conclusion

“Clean” is the community’s favorite song from 1989 (2014), however “Blank Space” was guessed to be the favorite. “Clean” was only the fifth most guessed. The least favorite song is “Bad Blood” and was accurately guessed.

This album has the most singles voted as favorites: “Wildest Dreams,” “Style,” “Blank Space,” and “New Romantics.” “Out of the Woods” was fourth most commonly guessed to be the community’s favorite song, and it fell at sixth most voted as favorite song. It’s interesting how after Red (2012) with non-singles ranking higher than singles, 1989 (2014) reversed that with the singles being ranked higher than the non-singles except in the case of “Clean” which was ranked as the most favorite, though it was not a single.

Conclusion

“Getaway Car” was accurately guessed as the most preferred song from reputation (2017) and “End Game” was accurately guessed as the least favorite song.

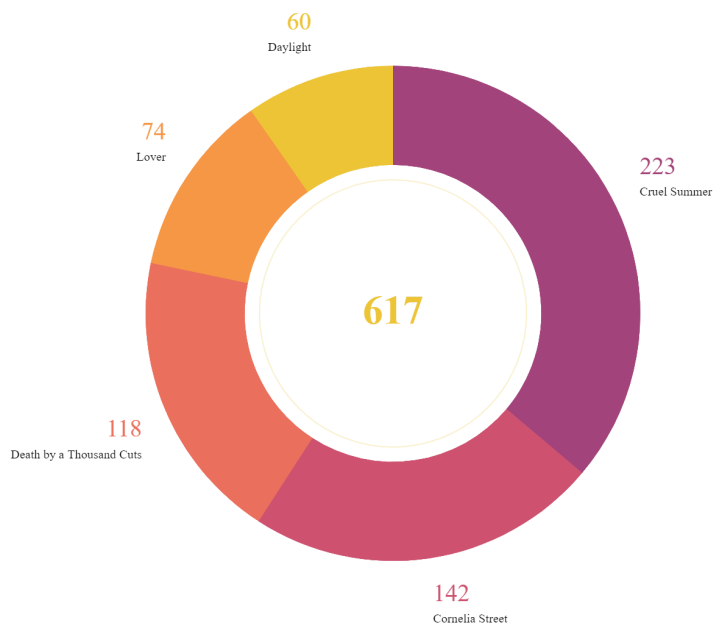

Three of the top five ranked songs were not singles: “Getaway Car,” “Don’t Blame Me,” and “New Year’s Day.” Based on the accuracy of the guesses, I assume that reputation (2017) is discussed more than some other albums.

The community's favorite song from Lover (2019) is "Cruel Summer," and was accurately guessed. "Me!" was the most highly voted least favorite song and was accurately guessed as the most highly guessed least favorite.

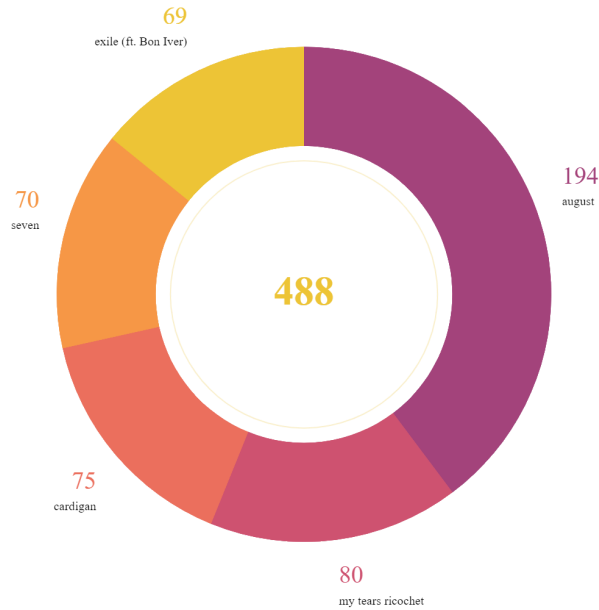

"Daylight" was ranked as the fifth favorite song, although it only had 0.4% of the guesses, making it the 10th most voted for guess, tied with "Paper Rings." Like reputation (2017), Lover (2019) is most likely more discussed than other albums, judging by how accurate the guesses were.

Conclusion

“August” was correctly guessed to be the community’s favorite song from folklore (2020). “Epiphany” and “hoax” were accurately guessed to be the top two least favorites from this album.

“Betty” appears to be the least favorite of the love triangle trilogy, although “cardigan” was guessed to be the least favorite of that trilogy. “Seven” is the fourth most voted favorite, but the 11th most guessed to be the community’s favorite with 0.8% of the vote. “The lakes” and “peace” were guessed in place of “mad woman” and “mirrorball” as the third- and fourth-least favorites. It’s interesting how “the lakes” was guessed to be a least favorite even though it’s a bonus track, which is safe to assume should be more well liked than some non-bonus tracks.

“Champagne problems” was accurately guessed as the favorite song from evermore (2020) and “closure” was accurately guessed as the least favorite.

It’s interesting how “cowboy like me” is in the top 5 for both favorite and least favorite song. It is ranked as third-least favorite song and fourth-favorite song.

Two songs were guessed to be some of the community’s favorites that weren’t included in the top five voted: “no body, no crime” and “willow.” “Right where you left me” and “cowboy like me” were in the top 5 voted favorite songs but were not guessed to be some of the community’s favorites. “Cowboy like me” was one of the community’s least favorites, but guessed in its place was “it’s time to go.”

What Song You Think is the Community's Least Favorite

Conclusion

It's clear that "Mr. Perfectly Fine" is the community's favorite from Fearless (Taylor's Version) (2021), however "The Way I Loved You" is the only other song to make the top five that was one of the top five to be guessed as the community favorite. "Superstar" was accurately guessed as the community's least favorite song from this album.

Compared to the original version of Fearless (2008), the least favorite hasn't changed but the top favorites from Taylor's Version are songs from the Vault, which makes sense because they're newer songs, so recency bias most likely played some role in those songs being ranked higher than others.

Which Album You Think is the Community's Least Favorite

Conclusion

The least favorite album is clearly Taylor Swift's debut album, which makes sense as it is expected for her songwriting and vocal performance to improve over the years. Folklore (2020) is clearly the community's favorite album, which makes sense as well because it's the first album with her new alternative/indie style.

Personally, I was surprised to see reputation (2017) ranked higher than Red (2012) and 1989 (2014) and I was surprised to see Lover (2019) so far down on the list. I anticipate lots of you will be surprised to see reputation (2017) ranked third-favorite, as it was guessed the second most as least favorite album.

To Conclude

Most of the guesses were very accurate. Both favorite and least favorite from Taylor Swift (2006), the least favorites from Fearless (2008) and 1989 (2014), the favorites from Speak Now (2010) and Red (2012), both the favorites and least favorites from reputation (2017) and Lover (2019), and both the favorites and least favorites from the sister albums folklore (2020) and evermore (2020). “Superstar” is the least favorite song from Fearless (2008) and continued to be the least favorite in the re-recorded album from 2021. A few of the guesses were close but inaccurate: the favorites from Fearless (2008) and 1989 (2014), and the least favorites from Speak Now (2010) and Red (2012). I think those who are most active in the community would have made the most accurate guesses and those who have been part of the community for a shorter amount of time or who are less active might have had a lesser chance to guess the favorites and least favorites right.

I only really started following Taylor’s music right around the very beginning of the Reputation era, so I haven’t been a Swiftie as long as the majority of you who answered this survey. I made some of my own guesses about favorites and least favorites and I guessed wrong the majority of the time. If you want to share why you think a certain song is liked or disliked or why you personally like or dislike a certain song, please share, I’d love to hear your reasoning!
