

Have YOUR say!!!

What makes us amazing...	Purchases I regret...	My favorite Library hack...
Best advice when being observed...	Favorite tools for keeping organized...	Advice when working with little to no budget...
Favorite edtech tool...	Best classroom management strategy...	My goal this year...
What I wish I knew when I started...	My all-time favorite lesson to teach...	Library Hill I'll die on...
Best strategy for working with administrators...	How I get books returned on time...	Tactic for getting teachers to collaborate...
Strategy for motivating students to read...	Your favorite libraries to visit on vacation?	My favorite lunchtime program...
Favorite strategies for promoting a culture of reading...	Favorite passive programming activities...	Go-to books for reluctant readers...
I advocate for libraries and librarians by...	How I combat stereotypes about our profession?	How to fundraise without annoying your school community...

Here's your chance to be included in the intro of the next episode.

Pick a prompt and decide what you'd like to say.

- 1. Find a quiet space to record. Bedrooms, carpeted rooms are best. Hardwood floors, kitchens are the worst.
- 2. Hold your phone very close to your face.
- 3. Allow yourself 1-5 minutes to:
  - a. Introduce yourself and your library, and location. Last names and school names are optional.
  - b. Respond to any of the listed prompts with advice, strategies and resources.
  - c. (Optional) Share your social media or links mentioned in your recording.
- 4. Email file (.wav .MP3 or similar) to schoollibrariansunited@gmail.com
Include a mailing address so I can thank you with a podcast sticker.
- 5. Subject line: Have YOUR Say!!!