

CHAYN <3 NIDA

Thank you, Nida, for being a ray of light, full of compassion, understanding, and kindness. Always motivating others, making us smile with your inventive puns, you truly are Chayn's superstar. But most of all, I want to thank you for lending a caring, non-judgmental ear when I really needed it. You'll always rock in my books :) Wishing you all the best from the bottom of my heart, Evangelia - the Black Goat ;)

With you leaving, noone else will understand the real meaning of ostriching, noone will laugh a lot about it :(. Thanks for encourage me to write - for support me everytime i need you to proofread my blogs, emails. For being there all the time. Cant believe I wont have any notifications from you in Chayn anymore. You are really Chayner. Bring your light always to other as you did always Chayn. Love you . Dinu xx Nida, thank you for being a constant source of unflinching courage, advice, and excellent gifs. For me, the best thing about being a part of Chayn is getting to meet and work with badass inspiring women like you, women who make me think 'I wish I could be like you when I grow up!'...despite us being the same age. I have complete faith that no matter what you do next, you'll do it excellently - you deserve it! Come visit us in London some time soon :) Aisha <3

Dear Nida,

Without you Chayn won't be the same. Your hard work, your drive and your charming self will be sorely missed by all of us. I am so happy to have been part of chayn while you were there. How else would I have enjoyed the puns and banter, read the interesting articles and witnessed such a courageous woman voicing her opinion against so much ignorance? I know it sounds cheesy but I really believe that you are an inspiring human being. All the best with what awaits you next ^_^ (german) Dina

Dearest Nida,

Few people have touched my life in the way you have. There have been countless times when I've been grateful for your presence, both professionally and personally. I'm in constant awe of you - your compassion, empathy, wisdom, sense of humour and strength. All this at such a young age. And I hope to have a front row seat in witnessing your continuous journey into greatness. No matter where life takes you, please know that you have made me a fan and I'll be there to cheer you on at every turn. Much love and best wishes,
Sam

Dear Nida,

Thank you for being such an inspiring and helpful person ever since we first spoke. You're so incredibly talented, I can't wait to see all that you achieve. Chayn India will definitely not be the same without you, but I wish you all the best for everything that you do. Hope to see you in Mumbai, very soon :) Lots of love,
Serena

Dear Nida(licious!),

I can't believe you're leaving Chayn... I'm still in denial. When I think of Chayn, I immediately see you as one of the key awesome individuals at the heart of Chayn. Albeit we met 'virtually', I'm truly grateful that we crossed paths in our lives. I was so lucky and so glad that I had my induction into Chayn from you. I know that whatever you decide to do know, you'll achieve success in it. Yep, you're super awesome. I hope that one day we'll meet each other face-to-face. You best let me know if you ever decide to venture a trip down to london! If I ever manage to cross over to India.. I'll be sure to bug you! Thank you for everything, for your words of support & wisdom. All the best Nidalicious! Sending you lots of fantabulous luuuuurv and squeezable hugs from UK, Afsu <3 <3 <3

Thanks so much for all your work on Chayn India, amazing! Take care and all the best! Chiara x

Dear Nida,

I am so grateful for the example you have set for me and us when launching Chayn Italia. Also, thank you for the supportive and kind words when I wanted to kill everybody :)
I'm not sure how Chayn will be the same without you, you have given so much to this family - your presence will always be with us! (does it sound creepy?)
Until we meet in real life - keep up the amazing humor, wittiness and hard work that make you an amazing human being!
Good luck with your new deserved adventures, all my love

Dear Nida,

Thank you for all your support, help, kindness and patience! Your energy and wisdom has been a source of strength for all of us at Chayn. We will miss you terribly and endeavour to continue the passion and humour that you always bring to everything you do. Thank you for fighting for fairness and equality, I feel very very grateful for getting to be part of Chayn at the same time as you.

Good luck with everything you do in the future, I have no doubt that is will be amazing and courageous!

Lots and lots of love, Amy xxx

Dear Nida,

Thank you for being so welcoming when I first joined and for being so supportive throughout my time with Chayn. Could never tell you that I was secretly envious of you during my first month about how well you handled everything. Pretty soon that envy turned into admiration and you became one of the few people I started to look up to. I love you, warts and all. Also, why does this sound like a eulogy?
Thank you for being you. Good luck with everything!

Lots of love and McNuggets, Seerat

Dear Nida,

Thank you for always looking out for me, making sure you checked up on volunteers externally to ensure they felt included and needed. It's hard to keep up spirits and momentum in an international organisation but you always went extra to make sure people felt needed and included. I will miss you titlemister. Best of luck with everything!

Love, char

Dear Nida,

I really don't know where to start or what to say. I say this as I'm about to launch into a monologue. I can't imagine Chayn without you and it's going to be a difficult few months for me, and Chayn but what gives me hope is that with your help, we've been able to build a strong foundation which can survive the loss of someone like you. I've always seen you as my Chayn soul sister. The second in command. The person without whom Chayn couldn't be where it is. You've taught me so much that I don't know where to begin that list. You've been my partner in creating systems, work flows and resources. Your dedication and energy has been infectious and was fundamental in creating an atmosphere of sisterhood and fun. We've seen some troubling times together, dealing with complex cases and serious resource constraints and I don't know how I would have coped through it if it weren't for you. What a year it has been too! From you being the sheriff of Mumbai to helping us win multiple awards and being quoted in every big publication - it's been amazing. You've also taken a lot on yourself and we're every grateful and sorry for you bearing so much emotional and physical labour (those fingers typing all day!). We'll keep bugging you for advice and read your old men blogs.
