MAKE A PLAN ON HOW YOU WILL REVIEW THESE RESOURCES COMING FORWARD

From resources I will have the Bootcamp, I will use all the knowledge from the bootcamp, I will use the chats to ask questions to my colleagues. I will use tools to learn about certain micro-skills from the internet, youtube, etc. From another course I paid for a virtual academy of Digital Marketing, I will use pure G learning and concentration to learn and review my notes.

PREPARE FOR CHALLENGES

- The future challenges I will have to face are to master the different microskills to solve different specific problems of my clients, I will master them with practice so I have to practice and learn constantly.
- In the future I will also have to master all the knowledge from the bootcamp and learn more, such as Social Media from the other campus to increase my value that I can provide.
- Time is very important so I will have to have pressure to constantly learn and train myself a lot more in a short time.
