Territory

Locations

The Red Lodge

A modern nightclub modeled with the theme of a 19th century Hellfire club. On the surface the club presents a niche market of a themed nightclub. The Red Lodge is the main hangout for the Hellfire Club pack. Welcoming all Sabbat into it's doors and hidden indulgences.

Temple to Caine

A Simple underground chamber large enough to fit all the cities Sabbat members. It holds simple statues of the fallen Archbishops and other luminaries of the city. Presented as a simple underground church, the Boston Temple of Caine has some sleeping chambers, a small armory, and a few of the important documents to the sect. Not often used, the Temple of Caine is often reserved for important rituals of the sect for the city.

Purity

The primary nightclub of the Sabbat of Boston. Purity is owned and operated by the Tzimisce Auroa Vance.

Cathedral of the Holy Cross

The local chapter house for the Order of St. Blaise

Greater Boston

Greater Boston is the region of New England encompassing the municipality of Boston and surrounding areas. It forms the northern arc of the U.S. northeast megalopolis. The region consists of most of the eastern third of Massachusetts, excluding the South Coast region and Cape Cod. Greater Boston can be described as either a metropolitan statistical area (MSA) or combined statistical area (CSA), the latter of which includes the municipalities of Manchester (largest city in New Hampshire), Providence (capital of Rhode Island) and Worcester (second largest city in New England). Greater Boston's most impactful contributions to human civilization involve the region's higher education institutions, innovation, scientific research, and sports culture.

Below you will find the parts known as Greater Boston and their current status in the World of Darkness among vampires. This section will be updated to reflect gameplay.

City Reputation

Your City Reputation represents your standing with the various Sabbat Packs of the city. Your rating in this determines how likely NPCs are to listen to you or help you. It represents a relationship you have built with them and your opinion of you. Every PC starts with 1 level of the City Reputation for each pack. Through Role-Play, interaction, and stories the staff will increase and decrease these ratings and will update this document accordingly.

- You are known in the city
- You have done some small favors for them and they respect you some for it.
- You are known to support them and they support you in turn.
- A bond often formed in battle or through great favor, you have gone out on a limb
- You would risk your life for them and they you.

The Packs:

Hellfire Club (Status Quo): The Pack of Prisci represent the elders of the Sabbat of Boston.

They come off as a group of vampires from a forgotten era. They represent both the refinement and utter decadence of the 19th century. Often located at the Red Lodge club, the pack's name is the perfect representation of the true attitude of the pack itself. Noble Sin.

Sons of Liberty (Loyalist): All that remains of the once booming Loyalist movement of Boston. After many years and Archbishops the Sons of Liberty are the sole survivors of many Loyalist purges. The Sons of Liberty often keep to themselves and are hesitant to work with any other sabbat due to the past history of the city. War has caused the Sons of Liberty to evolve into being intelligent rebel rousers. Some often claim are the most dangerous type of Loyalists.

Lion's Pride (Moderates)

The Pack of the famous Brujah Antitribu the Lion. This Sabbat pack embraces the primitive bestial side of the sect. The pack is often viewed as the very definition of modern primitive. The Lion's Pride moves and acts as one powerful force. They are rumored to have an understanding of the Beast that few others can manage. The Lion's Pride are in many ways simple in how they interact with others. The pack is both a powerful ally and dangerous wild card.

Los Quatros (Ultra-Conservatives)

The military arm of the Sabbat of Boston. Los Quatros are the well-groomed, trained, and disciplined pack ready for year. They truly believe in the concept the sect needs to be an army above all else. All members of the Los Quatros pack come from the Cartels of Mexico. They are a very deadly yet sophisticated pack; ready to destroy any who might challenge them.

Roxbury Girls (Status Quo)

Decadent Catharists; the Roxbury girls embrace sin in all forms. They consider themselves the twisted social butterflies of the Sabbat. Often found indulging the nightlife and corrupting any mortal they can their hands on. The Roxbury girls survive by being neutral in all sabbat internal conflicts and using their deadliest weapon when needed. For they are the masters of learning the secrets of the city of Boston itself and those who live in it.

7th Day (Ecclesiastical)

The End if Nigh! The 7th Day pack are a back of noddists, priests, and doom sayers. The pack truly believes that Gehenna has either begun or is upon us all. They have memorized the prophecies of the Boo of Nod and use them in their sermons to rile up any who will listen; that the end is coming. A deeply religious pack, the 7th Day are some of the most knowledgeable clergy in the entire city.

Ibique Ad Mortem (Order of St. Blaise)

This elusive pack makes odd appearances now and then to the city on whole. They spend much of their nights in the mortal world and church itself. They have their fingers in almost all the businesses of the city and many of the churches line their pockets and influence. Little else is known of the pack that mostly keep to themselves. Rumors abound about the pack. Some from claiming they are cultists dedicated to a dead god ; to some saying they know the very secrets of the church itself.
