

Teen Room Rules

1. The Teen Room is for ages 12-18. Patrons outside of this age range are free to browse the collection to check out materials, but may not linger afterwards to participate in activities or “hangout.”
2. All patrons using the library are required to follow the Upper Skagit Library’s Code of Conduct. In addition, while in the teen room, you also agree to abide by our Teen Room Policy and our Teen Community Agreements, both of which can be found on our website, or are available by asking a library staff member.
 - If you do not follow the library Patron Policy, the Teen Room Policy, or the Teen Community agreements you may be asked to leave the library at the discretion of any library staff member, if the situation mandates. If necessary, the police will be contacted.
3. Please make sure to give others the chance to use equipment and activities.
 - Time limits for equipment and activities may be created by staff to ensure all can participate.
4. Treat library equipment with respect.
 - Do not attempt to take equipment out of the teen room.
 - Do not break, throw, smash, or stomp on library equipment.
 - Do not eat or drink while using library equipment.
 - When using library equipment use headphones or keep the volume low.
5. The teen room’s Nintendo Switch and gaming computer will be available for freeplay after 3pm on school days and all-day on Saturdays. During the summer, they may be accessed any time during open hours.
 - When using the Switch or gaming computer you agree to only use the library’s user profiles, and to not create or use your own personal profile on any software.
 - You may not add friends or follow other accounts.
 - You may not purchase or install any software, games, upgrades, mods, etc.

6. A Snack Basket is available in the teen room.
 - Teens are welcome to help themselves to items in the Snack Basket, however food must be eaten in the teen room.
 - The Snack Basket has a limited budget, and the Snack Basket will become unavailable once the budget has run out. Please be mindful of leaving enough snacks for others.
7. When you are done in the teen room, please do your best to clean up after yourself.
 - Place all garbage in the garbage bin.
 - Gather your belongings to take them with you.
 - Put the bean bag chairs, materials you used, controllers, etc. back where you found them.
 - If you need help with cleaning up, please ask library staff for assistance.
 - Repeated failure to clean up after yourself may result in a loss of Teen Room privileges.
