

Policy 303-22, Section 3-5.

Summary and Rationale for Changes

- Social Work and Public Administration want to share their elective credits: 20 credits.
 - Social Work and Addiction Studies want to share their elective credits: 16. This saves effort, paperwork, and streamlines the student experience.
 - This is a good opportunity to list off the official dual degree programs as bullets to improve clarity.
 - Added in Athletic Training and Physical Therapy (which currently has students).

3-5. Dual Master's Degrees

- Students who enroll in the Master of Public Administration degree program may choose the dual degree option with any one of three other programs as listed in the Catalog. the Master of Business Administration
- or Master of Social Work.

, Master of Urban and Regional Planning Upon the completion of specified requirements for each of the degree programs, the student will be granted two master's degrees.
