[Resident] [Superlucy34]: How would you describe the medical treatment you get at the CDC?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: I haven't gotten any medical treatment.

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: How would you think the safety conditions at the CDC are?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: I get shot every three seconds, and im constantly bleeding. Aside from that, there's that cat.
[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Broadcast?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: I dont know; im scared of him
[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Does he hurt you?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: He bombed me.
[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Bombed you, okay..
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: Yeah.

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: How often do you see yourself or others getting hurt in the CDC?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: Everytime.
[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Is it just like getting shot, or is it another reason?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: Yeah, mostly by staffing members.

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: How much exercise do you get down in the CDC?
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: I mean, I won a boxing match with another CD, and there are the mines. That's basically it. Yeah,
[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Mining is a good form of exercise, I guess, and boxing will strengthen your endurance and strength.
[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: Those are the only things to do down there.

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: What kind of food do you eat down at the CDC?

[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: There's food?

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: Isn't there a cafeteria?

[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: Oh, i didn't know that

[Resident] [Superlucy34]: How often are you left bleeding, standing there in the CDC?

[Class-D] [Kirbinano]: All the time, they shoot me by accident, then leave me there to bleed.
