

Introduction

(Written by KingJigglypuff)

This document outlines all released changes made to P+Ex v1.2 since the initial release of P+Ex v1.1.

v1.2 (8/28/2022)

-The P+Ex Quick Update download has been updated to include a migration option from P+Ex v1.1 to P+Ex v1.2.

-For console users, the console version has been updated to have its own launcher app.

-For Dolphin users, a new .elf launcher has been included.

-Additionally, P+Ex finally has a proper Netplay version.

-Mewtwo's Cosmetic ID has been changed to be unique, so as to not conflict with what's left of the Pokemon Trainer.

-Waluigi has been added to the game!!!

Changed Files (P+Ex Only)

More.asm (P+Ex/Source/Extras)

- Removed reference to "Source/Extras/L-Cancel.asm"
- Removed "Crush anywhere anytime [Eon]", as the code has since been moved to StageFiles.asm.
- Transferred all new P+Ex codes to a new directory (Source/P+Ex), and transferred asm calls to BOOST.txt.

Replays.asm (P+Ex/Source/LegacyTE)

- Edited (courtesy of Kapedani). Fixes replays not saving alt stages.

Angle.asm (P+Ex/Source/P+Ex)

- Fixed a crash when custom angles hit a Dedede minion. Fix provided by Eon.

CustomEnding.asm (P+Ex/Source/P+Ex)

- Edited "Custom Ending Videos in Classic/All-Star [DukeltOut]" (courtesy of DukeltOut) to use default videos if custom videos for Giga Bowser and Wario-Man aren't found. Also fixes Roy's ending video from being skipped. Additionally, the check for Mewtwo has been removed, due to Mewtwo receiving its own Cosmetic ID (previously, Mewtwo used the Pokemon Trainer's IDs).
- Added "Independent Pokemon Custom Video/Ending Fix [DukeltOut]". This fixes the Poke-Trio and Mewtwo from having their ending videos skipped. Also fixes the Poke Trio using Mewtwo's congrats screen.

Input Buffer.asm (P+Ex/Source/P+Ex)

-Renamed "Input Buffer.asm" to "InputBuffer.asm".
