

AILA EOIR Immigration Court Tracker

Connecticut - Hartford Connecticut Chapter EOIR Liaisons

[Last Updated July 24, 2020]

EOIR's Reported Historical Operational Status	AILA Notes
	AILA has learned that Master Calendar Hearings for non-detained cases are not going forward at this time at the Hartford Immigration Court. (6/30/2020).
On June 24, EOIR confirmed that the Hartford Immigration Court would resume hearings in non-detained cases on Monday, June 29, 2020.
	On June 23, 2020, Senator Richard Blumenthal (D-Conn.) joined 11 other Senators in sending a letter to EOIR Director McHenry about EOIR's decision to resume non-detained hearings, its process for making that decision, and its communication of that decision to stakeholders. The Hartford Immigration Court will resume non-detained cases on June 29, 2020.
EOIR announced via Twitter on June 11, 2020, at 5:25 pm ET, that "The Hartford and New Orleans Immigration Courts will resume hearings in non-detained cases on Monday, June 29, 2020. Please monitor the court's web page and public messaging in coming days for additional important information." EOIR linked to its operation status page in the tweet.
EOIR announced via Twitter on March 17, 2020, at 11:55 pm (ET) that "Effective March 18 all non-detained hearings postponed: these immigration courts closed: ATL Peachtree, Charlotte; HOU Gessner; Louisville; Memphis; NYC, Broadway & Fed Plaza; Newark; Sacramento; LOS – Olive. Check website for updates."	Also see EOIR issued a press statement on March 18, 2020, at 12:30 am (ET).