

Enoch Mayfields Shares Tips for Becoming a Successful Fashion Stylist

Enoch Mayfields is a well-known fashion stylist in MA, United States. With a passion for style, and a mind full of immaculate visual ideas; he recognizes, reinvent and define the image for a garment, product or a particular brand. He began his career as a fashion stylist after completing a three year course in fashion styling from one of the nation's top Universities. He covers both operational and creative strategies to create something new for the fashion industry.

Enoch Mayfields has worked for fashion editorials, brand imaging, restyling proposals, print advertising campaigns and social media visual contents. He has received many awards as a wardrobe stylist, fashion editor, as well as a celebrity stylist. He has extensive knowledge of different fashion styles and can easily give anyone a make-over through right clothing, accessories, and hair styling. He encourages aspiring fashion stylists to experiment and come up with innovative ideas that can help them produce a variety of visual outcomes.

Enoch Mayfields owns a personal styling boutique in MA. According to the unique personality, life style, and body type of a client; he enhances their personal style. When not working, Enoch likes to spend his time reading fashion magazines, playing chess, or spending time with his family.