&. POWERS ...

due to being the half-demon daughter of trigon, raven has many powers related to darkness. her powers are connected to her emotions—the more she feels, the more energy is released. as a result, her powers require great restraint, concentration, and precision. to use her powers, she often chants the incantation, “azarath mettrion zinthos.”

her powers include:

- empathy.
- limited healing.
- limited psionics.
- empathetic precognition - can see flashes of the future when exposed to extreme emotion.
- soul-self projection (takes the form of a bird composed of dark energy).
- telekinesis.
- dark energy projection.
- teleportation.
- levitation.
- fear manifestation.
- limited time stopping.
- sensing.
- magic.

other abilities include:

- expert tactician.
- some hand-to-hand combat.
- high pain tolerance.
- considerable knowledge of the occult.

additionally, if raven is overcome with emotion, she can lose control of her powers and take on a demonic form. in this form, she gains an extra pair of eyes on her forehead and all four eyes glow red. her powers become entirely destructive and without her control over them, someone has to physically stop her.

despite having so many great powers and abilities, raven does have plenty of weaknesses. these weaknesses include:

- emotional imbalance.
- verbal restraints.
