The following list was pulled from

<https://sheshreds.com/a-compilation-of-anti-racism-resources/>:

- Bail Funds/Legal Support by City is a resource list of nationwide bail funds and legal support by state

- Minnesota Freedom Fund

*NOTE: MFF is currently experiencing an overflow of donations and asking to redirect funds to other organizations.

- Official George Floyd Memorial Fund

- Black Visions Collective is fighting for Black and collective liberation. They believe in a Minnesota and a country in which ALL Black lives not only matter but thrive.

- Reclaim the Block is organizing in Minneapolis to move money from the police department into community health and safety.

- Black Mama's Bail Out works towards getting Black mothers and caretakers out of prison and providing support

- Beyond The Bars is a 501(c)3 student driven music and career skills program that is dedicated to interrupting the cycles of violence and incarceration while helping our students recognize their immense potential and bright futures.

- Assata's Daughters "organizes young Black people in Chicago by providing them with political education, leadership development, mentorship, and revolutionary services"

- Chicago Community Bond Fund

- The Okra Project "The Okra Project is a collective that seeks to address the global crisis faced by Black Trans people by bringing home cooked, healthy, and culturally specific meals and resources to Black Trans People wherever we can reach them."

- The Foundation for Black Women's Wellness COVID-19 Women's Relief Fund "Our mission at The Foundation for Black Women's Wellness is to empower a generation of Well Black Women. We do this through year-round education programming, advocacy, and powerful partnerships."

- Loveland Therapy Fund for Black Women & Girls "With the barriers affecting access to treatment by members of diverse ethnic and racial groups. Loveland Therapy Fund provides financial assistance to Black women and girls nationally seeking therapy."

- Black Earth Farm Foods "Grassroots Black and Indigenous Agroecological Farming Collective"

- Pimento Relief Fund Association for Black Economic Power is partnering with Pimento to provide black business without insurance relief after white supremacists set them on fire during the protests in Minnesota.

- Black Owned Farms to support in the U.S. – "A list of black-owned farms, distributors, and related organizations compiled thanks to the research of Shoppe Black, TravelNoire.com, and BlackBusiness.com. Support a local black-owned farm or organization by purchasing a CSA, becoming a donating member, or even volunteering farm labor.

- NAACP Legal Defense Fund – The NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. is America's premier legal organization fighting for racial justice. Through litigation, advocacy, and public education, LDF seeks structural changes to expand democracy, eliminate disparities, and achieve racial justice in a society that fulfills the promise of equality for all Americans. LDF also defends the gains and protections won over the past 75 years of civil rights struggle and works to improve the quality and diversity of judicial and executive appointments. LDF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
- Vera Institute of Justice – The Vera Institute of Justice is a POC lead 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a long history of research based advocacy nationally on issues effecting communities of color. Their work brings data and analysis to the tables of decision makers at city, state, and federal levels to enact systemic change. Among their priorities are ending mass incarceration, police violence, racial bias in prosecution, and the targeting of immigrant communities.
- The Innocence Project – After Breonna Taylor's apartment in Louisville was raided by armed cops in plain clothes, Breonna's boyfriend Kenneth Walker fired at what he could only assume were armed intruders in self defense. If it weren't for the national spotlight on Breonna's case, the ridiculous charges of first-degree assault and attempted murder may have never been dropped against Walker, and his life could be wasted in prison. For those who did not benefit from national attention on their case, The Innocence Project seeks to shine a light on victims of wrongful convictions that have been incarcerated. Their mission statement is to "...Free the staggering number of innocent people who remain incarcerated, and to bring reform to the system responsible for their unjust imprisonment." You can donate and learn more about their work at The Innocence Project, and can also learn about some of their successful legal battles by watching the Netflix series The Innocence Files.
- Marsha P. Johnson Institute – "The Marsha P. Johnson Institute (MPJI) protects and defends the human rights of BLACK transgender people. We do this by organizing, advocating, creating an intentional community to heal, developing transformative leadership, and promoting our collective power."
- The Community Action Justice Fund has a list of organizations to support who are on the frontline of "gun violence prevention and intervention efforts happening in communities across the country."
- Black Sex Workers Relief Fund organized by Gizelle Marie. Excerpt from the GoFundMe page: "As of June 2nd I am now an owner of several properties that are $1 Million dollars each (buildings with several unit apartments) that will be put back into my community to create housing and future resources for all. Funds will be used to fix these properties and future endeavors while in the mist to help anyone in need of transportation temporary shelter or food during the pandemic nation wide while the properties are being renovated. All this to protect the lives of my community.”

- Critical Resistance – “Critical Resistance seeks to build an international movement to end the Prison Industrial Complex by challenging the belief that caging and controlling people makes us safe.”
- Black AIDS Institute “Founded in May of 1999, the Black AIDS Institute (BAI) is the only premier uniquely and unapologetically Black think and do tank in America powered by two decades of work to end the Black HIV epidemic and led by people who represent the issues we serve. BAI sources our capacity building, mobilization, policy, and advocacy efforts from Black leaders and communities across the country and provide high quality direct HIV services and linkage to care to Black people.”
- Morris Home, located in Philadelphia, PA, is the only residential recovery program in the country to offer comprehensive services specifically for the transgender community. They provide a safe, recovery-oriented environment in which people are treated with respect and dignity, especially the Black trans community and including the late Dominique “Rem’mie” Fells. Donate here.
- Brave Space – “Brave Space Alliance is the first Black-led, trans-led LGBTQ Center located on the South Side of Chicago, dedicated to creating and providing affirming, culturally competent, for-us by-us resources, programming, and services for LGBTQ individuals on the South and West sides of the city.”
- FOR THE GWORLS raises funds to assist with Black trans folks’ rent and affirmative surgery.
- Black Trans Femmes in the Arts connects the community of black trans women and non-binary femmes in the arts.
- Black Women’s Health Imperative is “The first nonprofit organization created by Black women to help protect and advance the health and wellness of Black women and girls.” Founded by Byllye Y. Avery in 1983, the Black Women’s Health Imperative (BWHI) operates out of Washington D.C. and has been consistently advocating for Black women’s physical and mental health through advocacy, research, and public education for over 35 years. By getting involved with BWHI, you can help them reach their goal of, “..Helping to increase the number of healthy black women in the U.S. from 9.5 million to 12.5 million.”
- National Center on Violence Against Women in the Black Community, also known as Ujima, works to end domestic, sexual, and community violence in the Black community and serves as a resource to survivors of violence, advocates, service providers, and the community at-large. By donating or getting involved, you can help support survivors of violence in the Black community by funding Ujima's team of case workers, community educators, and researchers.

- SisterSong, formally named the Women of Color Reproductive Justice Collective, states its mission statement as, "To strengthen and amplify the collective voices of indigenous women and women of color to achieve reproductive justice by eradicating reproductive oppression and securing human rights." By donating or getting involved with SisterSong, you can add to their momentum in training the next generation of activists for intersectional reproductive justice and human rights.

The following list was pulled from showingupforracialjustice.org:

- Black Alliance for Justice Immigration: BAJI educates and engages African American and black immigrant communities to organize and advocate for racial, social and economic justice. Local BAJI Organizing Committees in New York, Georgia, California and Arizona build coalitions and initiate campaigns among communities to push for racial justice.
- Blackbird/Ferguson Action: Strategic communications and rapid-response organizing to support Black-led organizing through the Movement for Black Lives.
- Black Lives Matter Network: Black Lives Matter is a chapter-based national organization working for the validity of Black life. We are working to (re)build the Black liberation movement.
- Black Organizing for Leadership and Dignity: BOLD (Black Organizing for Leadership and Dignity) is a national Leadership Training Program designed to help rebuild Black (African-American, Caribbean, African, Afro-Latino) social justice infrastructure in order to organize Black communities more effectively and re-center Black leadership in the U.S. social justice movement.
- Black Youth Project 100: Black Youth Project 100 (BYP 100) is an activist member-based organization of Black 18-35 year olds, dedicated to creating justice and freedom for all Black people. We do this through building a collective focused on transformative leadership development, direct action organizing, advocacy and education.
- Blackout Collective: Full service Black direct action collective.
- Color of Change: ColorOfChange.org exists to strengthen Black America's political voice. Our goal is to empower our members - Black Americans and our allies - to make government more responsive to the concerns of Black Americans and to bring about positive political and social change for everyone.
- Dignity and Power Now: Dignity and Power Now (DPN) is a grassroots organization based in Los Angeles that fights for the dignity and power of incarcerated people, their families, and communities.

- Freedom Inc.: Freedom, Inc. engages low- to no-income communities of color in Dane County, WI. We work to end violence against people of color, women, those that non-traditionally gender identify, and our youth, to promote healthy lifestyle.
