THE BAD: the messages are too long ldk how to fix that without losing the power of the DM so it ends up looking like 5 paragraphs after another

MESSAGE 1

No homo man but you have a great physique ☐

I've helped my old client increase her email open rates by 40% and click rates by 3% using my Gmail Pump System.

This system is designed to get emails past the 'Promotions' tab and straight into the primary inbox, capturing attention within the first three seconds with subject lines that make readers stop scrolling and click.

I can write your welcome sequence for you and help you get similar results. You won't have to lift a finger and it'll all be done within 9 days.

If you're interested, just book a 30-minute call with me by clicking this link <https://calendar.app.google/kYBq8tmnCpemLbSW9> , and we'll chat. I'll walk you through my process, and if we're a good fit, I can get started whenever you want.
