

1. Kevin Taylor

- a. Kevin Taylor filed to run in HD 31 on March 7, 2024. Taylor listed 1138 Cherry Creek St, Glasgow, MT 59230 as his mailing address, which is in House District 28, with the COPP on his C1 form, and his physical address as 282 Britzman Road Glasgow, MT 59230, which is in House District 32. [\[See Complaint Here\]](#) House District 28 includes portions of Liberty, Hill, Blaine, Phillips, and Valley Counties; House District 31 includes portions of Blaine, Phillips, Valley, and Roosevelt Counties; and House District 32 includes portions of Chouteau, Hill, Blaine, Phillips, and Valley Counties. Since House Districts 28, 31, and 32 all cross county lines, candidates for office are required to reside within the district boundaries, per the MT State Constitution, Article V, Part V, Section 4. Therefore, Kevin Taylor has filed for an office he is ineligible to represent, and opened a campaign account to raise money and has proceeded to file campaign finance reports for an office he is ineligible to run for and represent.

2. Bill Hodges

- a. William "Bill" L. Hodges filed to run in HD 42 on January 19, 2024. Hodges listed 115 Parker Ln Not Hispanic or Latino, MT 59034 as his residence address on his C1 [\[See Complaint Here\]](#). Presuming that "Not Hispanic or Latino" is supposed to read "Hardin," this address is in House District 41. House District 42 includes portions of Yellowstone and Big Horn Counties, and House District 41 includes portions of Big Horn and Rosebud Counties. Since both House Districts 41 and 42 cross county lines, candidates for office are required to reside within the district boundaries per the MT State Constitution, Article V, Part V, Section 4. Therefore, William "Bill" L. Hodges has filed for an office he is ineligible to represent, and opened a campaign account to raise money and has proceeded to file campaign finance reports for an office he is ineligible to run for and represent.
