Course Announcement

ICS-300- Intermediate ICS Principles

Part 1: February 8th or 9th or 10th (attend one)

Part 2: February 15th or 16th or 17th (attend one)

Attend only 1 class on February 8th or 9th or 10th to complete part 1. Attend only 1 class on February 15th or 16th or 17th to complete part 2. Participants must attend both Part 1 and Part 2 of the course for successful course completion.*

8:00 AM - 5:30 PM

ICS-300 provides training on and resources for personnel who require advanced application of the Incident Command System (ICS). The course expands upon information covered in the ICS-100 and ICS-200 courses. Attendance both days is mandatory.

Personnel must have completed the following Incident Command System Courses or an equivalent to these courses: Introduction to ICS (ICS-100) and Basic ICS (ICS-200), IS-700 NIMS and IS-800 Natl Response Framework.

Where: Pueblo West Fire Station #3
729 East Gold Drive (Corner of Gold and McCulloch)
Pueblo, CO 81007

Register: Registration will be through www.co.train.org Course ID: 1005860
This course is first come, first served. No charge.

Target Audience: Individuals who may assume a supervisory role in expanding emergency incidents.

Prerequisites: NIMS IS 700, IS 800, IS 100, ICS 200
For more information contact: Karen Ashcraft, 719-583-6202

DEPARTMENT OF LOCAL AFFAIRS
STATE OF COLORADO
1876
EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT