

7/23/16 UPDATE : omg i'm' just a big baby but i'm really happy right now, NEVER THOUGHT vietnamese keith would get so far out into the fandom?? I'm just, really really grateful and happy AND UGH I WISH I CAN PUT IT INTO WORDS BUT MMMM. i don't think i can say thank you enough?? Idk omg this is so cheesy i'm sweating but it's amazing in my eyes. Cause i can finally show my lil cousin and niece vietnamese keith and they're gonna be like omg i have an ao dai too!!! AND DO YOU KNOW. HOW IMPORTANT IT IS TO SEE THEIR LITTLE FACES LIKE IDK YALL I CANT WAIT TO SHOW THEM....

 okay before we start though, just wanted to make clear that i just wanted to spill some feelings out and kind of relive the nostalgia of my birthplace, vietnam. Plus vietnamese keith is great and if you're not vietnamese or been to vietnam it's totally aight!! Hopefully you can get a lookie at what i experienced when i was there and spread the vietnamese keith love ya feel?? I'll include some pics too. And if youre vietnamese, sino-vietnamese, or have any connection to the vietnamese culture, i hope maybe some of these pertain to you too?? Cause if so that's really neat :''^). even if Vietnamese Keith doesnt happen im glad i was able to show just a little bit of Vietnamese culture to Voltron. OKAY LET'S START

Keith eating chè at one of the neighborhood stalls at dusk with all the neighborhood kids (s/o to @amipetiteyet on twitter for this great headcanon). The stalls around the area know of keith and his situation and whenever possible they give him a treat, like the tàu hũ nước đường lady, SHE NEVER FORGETS. Whenever keith sees pidge or sees the color green he can't help but remember all those dishes that have that one specific color green that you don't see anywhere else, and no words can describe it but just home and sweetness. It's hot and humid, and keith is sweating like no other. He'll scratch at the absurd amount of bug bites all over his body, leaving small scars. It'll be like his body is a galaxy and those scattered remnants of the bug bites are like stars. Keith would charge head on into a mission because it's exactly like crossing the streets of vietnam. You just GO. barely streetlights, no crosswalks. Just you, the gravel, and the hoard of revving motorcycles hurling down the street. NO CHILL. He learns to drive a motorcycle and weaves through the mass of chaos like nothing. There are motorcycles with way more people than it's capable of carrying but the driver is still magically able to drive it. He thanks that skill when escaping the garrison because driving with 5 people on a motorcycle is no easy feat. unless of course youve been raised with THISFUCKING ABOMINATION

Like what the fuck,...

When it rains, the flood and keith will and let them cruise (although if he's will come by and night when everything terrifying amount of bugs gather at the lights, keith will push and pull those big metal gates at his place shut. It's loud as hell but he gets it together and locks it with the padlock.

streets will sometimes fold small paper boats down the waves unlucky a motorcycle DEMOLISH it). At dies down and the

When he puts on that áo dài he feels so pretty and handsome because that piece of garment is like fucking magic. It's so beautiful and there's the small details that keith loves. The red is just right and when your eyes fall on it it's like Whoa. When the wind picks it up a little it'll move so graciously and keith would love it when that happens because it'll look like flames. It fits him so well and it feels so right on him. Cause it's like so pretty y'all, omg i feel like a BABY getting so emotional over damn clothes but it's like so keith sometimes. The edges are sharp and cut, fits perfectly in the chest and arms, mirroring his personality a bit, but it kind of expands as you go further down cause there's like so much to keith that's still unknown. And it's like poofy pants!! So it's like fun but with a sense of greatness and amazement and more places to hide knives no just kidding at the last part. It's so beautiful yall, it's sooo nice. It's just,,

I just really miss home
