	Damien Memorial School' Ke Ali'i Newspaper is our school's student newspaper that's run by students, for students. Goal: Preserve the Damien Memorial School History, and to entertain or inform the student body through the media. Purpose of document: Informing volunteers or DMS on how to become involved

Written By: Anthony Perez (C/O 2025)

AS OF NOW SERVICE TO KE ALI'I IS NOT COUNTED AS COMMUNITY SERVICE

I am the organizer of the student newspaper and glad to hear your interest. To keep it short, below are the role that you can apply for with their details:

Main Roles (Jobs that require a set amount of work)

Writer:

- Turns article ideas into our written works
- Should have proficiency in writing and grammar
- Able to work here
- Having a good taste
- Staying on the topic you write

Editor:
(This role requires previous volunteer work for Ke Ai'i or any

- Edits articles
- Proficient writing and grammar skills

Event Photographer:

- Be present at Damien related events (ex. sports)
- Have the sufficient personal equipment (cameras)

Website Editor:

- Edits our website for any technical errors that have been inside

Contributor (You should email us to learn more)

Informer:

- Person who gives article ideas or info that can be made into our works

Volunteer:

- If you want to try things out for our team before any responsibilities, get involved with aiding any of the above (CONTACT/EMAIL aperez2025@damien.edu or DMSKeAlii@gmail.com

Columnist:

- Volunteers their times to create short columns on easy and relatively understandable topics
-