Mid-Unit Extension Instructions

Instructions for Enrich and Extend Group

Use the think-pair-write protocol to discuss your written responses, make connections to the text, and reflect on the unit's topic and essential questions.

- Think: Exchange your Mid-Unit Assessment written response with a partner. Record what you notice and wonder as you read your partner's written response. Notice similarities and differences between your partner's ideas and your own.
- Pair: Independently reread "The Gift of Strawberries" by Robin Wall Kimmerer, paragraphs 24–37 (the end). Discuss what you notice and wonder with your partner. Come up with 2–3 text-based questions to extend the discussion.
- Write: Respond to the prompt: What new thinking and lingering wonders do you have about our essential questions and the unit topic? Make sure to incorporate what you're learning from your independent reading into your response.
