

FerFot - Terms of Service for Commission Work - July 2026

Disclaimer : All of these are subject to change with time, be sure to read carefully before you decide to order from me!

GENERAL INFORMATION

- The commissions I'm offering are digital artworks;
- My prices and ratings will be available publicly on my social media pages (As of now, Twitter (X), bluesky and instagram);
- More types of commission services may become available in the future;
- Prices may change with time, as my skill level and product quality will increase with time. Any changes made will be public and clear to find;
- In case the client wishes to commission something not showing up in my offers, they may still inquire about them through a direct message.
- Clients will be informed if there are enough slots at the time, and will be reminded whenever they become available;
- If the client has a very urgent deadline, I can still work depending on the time needed, but that may require an additional fee;

“WON'T DO”

- Hateful content;
- Gore (Bruises and “Battle Damage” is ok!);
- In case it's something more specific, things can be discussed, depending on how comfortable I am with delivering a quality product or not. Prices may be influenced depending on the complexity of what's asked;
- I hold the right to refuse any request I don't find adequate or capable of realizing or don't agree with;
- I draw fanart, and will draw OC's too, however, if it's required that I do design work without an already made character reference, I will have to apply an extra fee. The client will, however, have more revisions available to get it right!;
- NSFW is ok, but ask before to make sure I am comfortable with the subject;

PROCESS

- The client may contact and discuss about the project through DMs on Twitter (X), bluesky or email;
- I will ask the client for as many references as possible, from ideal pose and composition to characters images and clothing references, the more the better. The same applies to format and dimensions;
- I will update the client whenever I make any significant progress on the piece (sketch, lineart, color, elements, etc). I will contact them through my available social media, or email if they so prefer. Open communication is key!;
- Once the piece is finalized, the client may ask for 1 final revision, but after it is complete, the process is concluded, and work is done, no refunds are to be allowed after it's concluded. Refer to the "REVISIONS" category for further details regarding them;
- Expect between 1 to 2 weeks for work to be complete, at worst over a month depending on the complexity of the piece or possible unforeseen factors (health issues, technical problems, etc...), or other commissions with higher priority. The client may message me in case they wish to check on the progress of the work, and I will inform about any major delays that may happen;

PAYMENT

- Payment is made upfront, as to assure a proper refund according to my defined terms of use;
- Payments are to be made in Euros (€);
- I only accept PayPal. Payments will be sent through an invoice from my side. Client must provide me with the means and proper information to send it;
- I will provide confirmation of the payment through a screenshot;
- I do not currently accept any commercial work. Commissions are destined ONLY for personal use;

SOCIAL MEDIA

- I hold the right to post or not post the commissions I make on my social media platforms;
- The client can be mentioned when I post said pieces, but their anonymity will be fully respected by default;
- I will appreciate any credit when the client posts the commission on any of their social media platforms. I do not allow the removal of my signature from my works if it is to be posted;

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- I do not allow my art to be used to train any AI databases, as well as being used for NFTs and crypto schemes;
- I don't allow my art to be used to promote hateful ideologies;
- I hold the rights over the creation of the piece, and may use it for promotional means and portfolio enrichment, with signature and watermarks included. The client may, of course, affirm themselves as the commissioner of said piece, but not as the author of said piece;

REVISIONS

- The client will have up to 4 revisions during the sketch phase, and 2 on the others. Minor corrections and errors aren't as limited, as long as they're reasonable and clear. Be as precise as you can to achieve the best result possible!;
- During the sketching phase, the client can request only 1 total pose change (granted they provide me with the adequate reference material), the other revisions may only be for certain elements. (for example, a shift on only 1 element, like a facial expression or hand pose);
- Further revisions on other phases must be direct and concrete, like a color change or adjustment on shading. No major changes to the structure of the drawing at this point, and they should correspond to the current phase;
- Once the drawing is complete, the client may do 1 final revision, associated with the rendering process and general color adjustment, no changes to the lineart structure of the drawing. Once this revision is used, the drawing will be considered as totally complete;

USE

- The client may use the piece for any personal purposes, like using it as a profile picture or phone wallpaper, posting it online, printing it or using it to decorate personal items;
- If the client wishes to distribute said item for other people, it must be in a completely non commercial manner, with no profit being made from such distribution;

REFUNDS

- If I haven't started working on the commission yet, the client may issue a total refund;
- Once I've concluded the initial sketch work, refunds will only be partial, as to compensate for any work already done, in case the client wishes to cancel the commission, or in case I'm unable to conclude said work. The client will still be provided with the concluded part of the work if they so wish;
- Partial refunds may go up to 75%, depending on the progress of the work;
- No refunds after work is declared concluded and delivered;
