

UPROOTING PATRIARCHY

HEALING & ACCOUNTABILITY FOR MEN

SATURDAY JANUARY 11TH - 10-5PM

A ONE DAY WORKSHOP

This workshop is for people who identify as men and / or the transmaculine spectrum to participate in the process of uprooting their relationship to patriarchy and domination through storytelling, political education, healing and accountability practices. The workshop will provide participants with the space to examine their own relationship to patriarchy, gain a foundational understanding of what patriarchy is and the damage it causes, learn embodied practices, and about restorative and transformative frameworks for accountability. Finally participants will get resources to continue their work of uprooting patriarchy.

To learn more and register visit:

<https://uprootingpatriarchy2020.eventbrite.com>

Cost: $75.00 (full) - sliding scale & limited scholarships available

Proceeds from this workshop will be given to a local grassroots organization that actively works to uproot patriarchy:

Questions? Email: uprootingpatriarchy@gmail.com

Uprooting Patriarchy: Healing and Accountability for Men

A One Day Workshop

This workshop is for people who identify as male to participate in the process of uprooting their relationship to patriarchy and domination through storytelling, political education, healing and accountability practices. The workshop provides participants with the space to examine their own relationship to patriarchy, gain a foundational understanding of what patriarchy is and the damage it causes, learn embodied practices, and about restorative and transformative frameworks for accountability. Finally participants are offered resources to continue their work of uprooting patriarchy.

Workshop Outline

- Welcome / Embodied Practice
- Introductions
- Community Values
- Community Agreements
- Definitions of Patriarchy and Other Terms
- Experiences of Patriarchy
- Embodied Practice
- Panel Discussion
- Accountability Frameworks and Practices
- Debrief and Closing